Troy Hi Addition Awarded Citation

Troy School officials have been notified by Architects Wyeth and Harman of Fort Huron that the plan for additions to Troy High School has been accepted for entry in the 1961 School Building Architectural Exhibit of the AASA (American Association of School Administrators) at its Eastern Regional Convention in Philadelphia in March.

The plan was also awarded a special citation by the Exhibit Jury of nationally prominent architects and educators.

Construction is underway on expansion of the high school to 1200 capacity. This is part of a $2,300,000 school expansion program which includes enlarging of the high school, construction of a new elementary school, remodeling of two schools and additions to two others.

Big bargains at small cost—that's what you get from the hundreds of classified ads which appear each week in your Birmingham Eccentric.

"Say, these glasses I got in the Want Ads are working already—the black spots have turned white!"

John L. McGlew of Huntington Woods has been appointed to serve as the Disabled American Veteran's representative on the Oakland County Veterans Trust Fund Committee by the Fund's board of trustees. He succeeds Chalmers LaFray who has resigned.

Everyone reads Eccentric classified ads—because they're packed with bargain items every week.
