Strange as it may seem—even contrary to natural instinct—too many human beings hold life as something not worth careful continuous preservation. For example: 50,000 Americans die in traffic accidents annually. Some in cars, some trying to get out of cars' paths. Every day, millions of drivers come within inches of colliding with other cars... just an inch from accident death. Why?

In Children's Play

Members of Will-O-Way's Children's Master class will be featured in "The Broken Doll." Amy Grossman, 4931 Elm Gate, Orchard Lake and Douglas Wassell, 1661 Graefield, Birmingham, will play the children's leads for the 1 and 2:30 p.m. performances on Saturday.

Christmas Play To Be Presented At Will-O-Way

"The Broken Doll" a special children's Christmas play, will be presented Saturday and Sunday at Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre, W. Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, 1, 2:30, 4 and 6 p.m.

A special invitation is extended to schools, children's homes, hospitals, scout troops and other clubs and organizations. Reservations may be made by contacting the school.

"The Broken Doll" takes place in a department store where frantic last minute Christmas shopping leads to hilarious consequences. A boy is lost and locked in the store. He meets Mary, an orphan girl, in his dreams and together they discover "Why is Christmas."

New Year's Eve Youth Ball

Three ballrooms and three orchestras will be required for the 27th annual "Silver Moon Ball," New Year's Eve dance for young people at the Masonic Temple. Serving on the board from the Birmingham area are Mrs. Robert Coleman, Mrs. Gordon Kingsbury and Mrs. John Lifsey.

Sponsored by Allied Youth of Michigan, Inc., the semi-formal affair offers young people a gay and glamorous evening. This year the dance will feature music by the orchestras of Dave Martin, Johnny Titus and Danny Baker from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m.

Newlywed Paul Schalm's On Caribbean Cruise

At a candlelight ceremony, Susan Meredith Cummins became the bride of Paul John Schalm Friday evening at Kirk in the Hills church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Blanche H. Cummins of Commerce Lake and Mr. Mantion M. Cummins of Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schalm of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Best man and ushers were Ronald D. Ertley, Lt. Richard M. Eiler, Lt. Douglas B. Lee, Charles Tutt and Edward L. Goebel Jr.

Following the ceremony, guests were greeted at the Detroit Yacht club. The newlyweds are on a Caribbean yacht cruise. Mrs. Cummins chose for her daughter's wedding a pale green brocade sheath and Mrs. Schalm selected a turquoise gown of peau de soie.

Have You Met...

The residents of 2969 E. Bradford? Mr. and Mrs. Robert Enaley moved from Indianapolis, Ind., in September. He is employed by the Defense Systems division of GM as missiles engineer. They have six children, Beverly, Barbara, Beth, Becky, Bob and Belinda.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by Dale B. Fife, the bride appeared in an original Bianchi gown of antique ivory bouquet taffeta designed with an open portrait neckline of alencon lace, hand clipped and embroidered with seed pearls and iridescents.

The veil was a princess crown of imported wax orange blossoms and seed pearls attached to a three-tier French illusion elbow length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of fuji mums and ivy.

ATTENDING the bride as maid of honor was Sandra Katherine Cummins and bridesmaids were Karen Ann Marsak, Joan Cecile Stover, Judy Ann Boese, Mrs. Dennis Armstrong and Carol Schalm.

They wore Bianchi gowns of Piquant green chiffon taffeta designed with an open portrait neckline, fitted bodice, elbow length sleeves and bell skirt with open panel detail and finished with an Oh! sash at the waistline. Their hats were imported Belgium wedding ring wreaths of wax orange blossoms. They carried fuji mums.
