

Charity Projects Top Westchester Club List

WESTCHESTER — Children at the Baptist Children's Home will be enjoying home-made Christmas cookies during the holidays, due to the generosity of the social service group of Westchester Women's Club.

The group met Dec. 7 at the home of Mrs. Edward Collins of Heathcliff Rd. where they filled decorated coffee can containers with a variety of Christmas cookies supplied by the members.

Gifts donated by the members were wrapped, tied with big red bows and sent to each child at the Home.

Mrs. Henry Gluckstad was chairman of the group and assisting her were Mrs. George Bryant, Mrs. Wayne Collins, Mrs. Tommy Shannon, Mrs. Gordon Loveland and Mrs. James Walker.

MRS. DOUGLASS PATRICK has been appointed chairman of the knitting group. The next meeting will be Jan. 4 at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Johnson, 2879 Farmingdale drive.

The next meeting of the executive board will be at 8 p.m. Jan. 3 at the home of Mrs. William Comey, 3154 Pebble Lane.

Three Prizes Offered For Door Decorations

WESTCHESTER — Westchester residents are engaged in plans for unusual door decorations as they enter the competition in the recently announced Christmas door decorating contest, sponsored by the Westchester WNFCA. The contest is open to all Westchester residents.

All decorations must be completed by Monday, when they will be judged by Mrs. Alice Burlingame. Prizes will be awarded to the three top winners.

Mrs. Robert Erwin is chairman of the door decorating committee. Assisting her are Mrs. Vernon Fitch, Mrs. Kenneth Ogden, Mrs. Eugene Humpal, Mrs. Donald King, Mrs. E. E. Manguse and Mrs. Robert Johnson.

As a special Christmas project, club members will contribute to a food basket for a needy family. Adding an extra bit of Christmas cheer will be a plant given by Mrs. Jack Seelye.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ricketts invited several couples to their home on Pebble Lane for cocktails before attending the Newcomer dance at Hillcrest Country Club, Dec. 3.

Twelve boys in the Westchester area have become members of the recently organized Boy Scout Troop 1016, sponsored by the Valley Woods PTA.

George A. Wilson has assumed the duties of scoutmaster for the troop. Meetings are held Monday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at the school.

Other officers are Fred G. Westbury, treasurer; Eugene L. Mueller, secretary and publicity; B. Anthony Longo, committee chairman and Ken Kittle, institutional representative to Valley Woods PTA. Eugene L. Mueller, Jr. is assistant junior scoutmaster.

On December 2, 3 and 4, the boys enjoyed a camp-out at Camp Howell, accompanied by Scoutmaster Wilson, B. A. Longo and Eugene Mueller.

A Court of Honor will be held at the school Monday at 7:30 p.m. The boys are presently engaged
