Birmingham city commissioners Monday night set a public hearing for Jan. 9 on a proposed amendment to the city zoning ordinance. 4 Arraigned On Larceny Theft Charges

Three Royal Oak youths pleaded guilty Monday to illegal opening of a coin box before Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland. They will be sentenced on Jan. 9.

The boys were arraigned in Birmingham Municipal court Dec. 14 and bound over to Circuit court. The three youths were apprehended Dec. 11 by Birmingham police. Three other boys with them were turned over to the Oakland County Children's Home to await a hearing.

POLICE SAID the youths had been systematically ransacking stand coin boxes for four weeks. The coin boxes are located near Wrigley's Super Market, 855 S. Hunter.

Although they denied any previous thefts of the coin boxes when they were picked up, a couple of them later admitted the other robberies, according to Lieutenant Merlin Holmquist.

Inc., a Birmingham firm that recently went out of business. Charges were brought against him by Fred Kohler of Strickland Transportation Co., Detroit. Kohler said he never in a 1956 Ford truck on a new car in an arrangement with Crown Chrysler-Plymouth Inc., Detroit.

WHEN CROWN closed in June, several employees joined Schutz and the deal was turned over to Garoutte at Schutz. Kohler claims that Garoutte sold the truck, pocketed part of the money and extended the payments on the car he bought.

Garoutte, a Royal Oak resident, was a salesman at Schutz Motors, Dec. 21, 1960
