

Girl Scouts, Brownies Make Christmas Joy

WALNUT LAKE—Walnut Lake Girl Scouts and Brownies co-operating in a service project which will bring Christmas joy to inmates at Pontiac State Hospital.

They made many kinds of ornaments which will be used to decorate the corridors and doors of the institution. This is the fifth consecutive year that area scouts have been engaged in such a project.

Dolls and Dolls
Unpacking and looking over dolls being collected for the traditional Doll Dinner is a favorite activity around Christmas time for students at Monticello College in Alton, Ill. Over 400 dolls are collected annually to be given to charitable organizations as Christmas gifts for children.

Couple Exchange Vows In Presbyterian Church

Linda Rae Brethen and James V. Kirkendall were united in marriage Saturday noon at Southfield United Presbyterian Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul H. Sutton.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Brethen of Midway Drive, Southfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kirkendall of Burlington, Ind.

FOR HER wedding day, Linda chose a princess style gown of de-luxured satin designed with a bateau neckline of alencon lace and inserts of matching lace en-garlanded the bouffant skirt. A jeweled crown secured her finger-tip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

John Kirkendall Stood as Best Man and Ushers were Marie Bandfield, Michael Papatzi, Stephen Mulliken and John Clark.

Mother of the bride chose a Roman blue silk brocade sheath with matching accessories. Kirkendall selected a beige lace sheath with matching accessories. Both mothers had cymbidium orchids.

FOLLOWING the ceremony guests were greeted at the Kingsley Inn. The young couple will live in East Lansing, where they are both students.
