Shopper Stopper

A crowd stopper attracting Birmingham shoppers during the last-minute Christmas rush was Don Thalacker's impersonation of a mannequin offering the Princeton Prep Shop's Season's Greetings to passers-by. The display window exhibition has become a tradition over the past three years with Thalacker, a college student at Washington and Lee in W. Virginia, playing the role each year. Thalacker is a salesman at the store during the holiday vacation except for the three days before Christmas during which he jumps from sales counters to the window every few hours for another performance.
