

Holiday Accidents Injure 2 Women

Two Birmingham area women were slightly injured in holiday weekend accidents. Miss Ann Duffield, 22, 1916 Sunnyslope, Beverly Hills, and...

PHIL F. DE BEAUBIEN Name de Beaubien Hearst Magazines Vice President

PHIL F. DE BEAUBIEN, 1472 N. Cranbrook Road, Birmingham, was first associated with Hearst Magazines as Detroit manager for Good Housekeeping. He also served as central zone manager for Look.

Troy News Briefs Troy Warns State On X-Way Route

The Troy City Commission recently issued two ultimatums to the Michigan State Highway Department on the location of the Chrysler expressway. In the ultimatums the commission's desire to change the planned route or at least relocate it at the interchange.

RESIDENTS HAVE been objecting to the location of an interchange at Adams and 19 Mile (Sunset Road) and the commission has echoed those objections over the past two months.

Officials in Troy Scan Master Plan For Water Supply

Troy officials are getting their first look at a master plan to supply water to the entire city in the next 30 years at a cost of more than $7 million.

Pay Raise Is Set For City Manager

Troy City Manager David E. Firestone will get a $500 pay raise as the City Commission decided Monday night.

Accumulation Of Gas Causes Troy Blast

The State Police fire marshal's office reported over the week-end that Troy's school boiler explosion, which killed one man and injured three others, was caused by an accumulation of gas, not by an excess of steam in the boiler.

Events Listed For Inauguration In Lansing

Plans for the Jan. 1 inauguration of Gov.-elect John E. Swainson and inauguration of the new governor were announced this week by Joe Collins, of Jackson, executive chairman of the inauguration events.

Collins released an inauguration program for the inauguration beginning with 7:30 a.m. church services and terminating with receptions at the State Administrative Board members in their Capitol offices.

HIGHLIGHT OF Inauguration Day ceremonies will be the formal opening ceremony at the State Capitol building on Sunday on the front (east) steps of the State Capitol Building.

CONVERSATIONS Preview Tea Slated Today

A preview of the 1961 "Conversations with Artists" will be given to Birmingham organization leaders who are attending a tea this afternoon at Birmingham Athletic Club.

MRS. JAMES M. McHUGH, 32205 Eastlady, Beverly Hills, is Birmingham area chairman for the 1961 "Conversations" She will be hostess at today's tea.

Poor Record Stacked Up On Accidents

Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley reports this city will have one of its poorest traffic records if the present trend continues.

Adult Art Classes At Cranbrook

Applications are being taken for the winter session of drawing and painting classes for adults which meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 8 to 10, at Cranbrook Academy of Art Galleries.

Expectant Parents Offered Classes By Health Dept.

Expectant Parent Classes will begin early in January and run for 10 weeks through March. Dr. John D. Monroe, Director of the Oakland County Health Department, announced last week.

Obituary Notices

Mrs. W. R. Lane Mrs. W. Raymond Lane, 185 Northlawn, Birmingham, died suddenly Dec. 22 at her home. She lived in Birmingham for 11 years.

Mrs. Elizabeth Felton After a short illness, Mrs. Elizabeth Felton, 21708 W. 10 Mile Road, Southfield, died Friday, She was 91.

Mrs. Carolyn Snook After a long illness, Mrs. Carolyn Snook died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Newman, 210 Lowell Court, Bloomfield Hills. She was 84.

Matthew Ulitchny Matthew Ulitchny of Detroit died Saturday at Veteran's hospital after a long illness. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Douglas Brown of Birmingham and Mrs. Stephen Vernarsky of Atlanta, Ga.; two brothers, four sisters and three grandchildren. Services were Tuesday from the William Vass funeral home with burial in White Chapel Memorial cemetery.

Mrs. W. R. Lane (Continued) She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Henry S. Schmidt of Birmingham; a son, John E. Lane of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Lewis S. Potter of Grosse Pointe; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Surviving are a son, William Bell of Southfield; a granddaughter, Mrs. Earlard Sharp of Allen Park and two great-grandchildren. Services were Tuesday from the Manly Bailey funeral home with entombment in Southfield cemetery.

Dr. W. R. Wilson, Long-time Resident Services for Dr. S. Forman Wilson, 1439 Bird, Birmingham, were Tuesday from the Manly Bailey funeral home. Entombment was at the Temple of Memories, White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association. He was also a member of the Congressional Church in Birmingham. Dr. Wilson retired from private practice in Detroit in 1935 and had lived in Oakland County for 25 years.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Surviving are a son, William Bell of Southfield; a granddaughter, Mrs. Earlard Sharp of Allen Park and two great-grandchildren. Services were Tuesday from the Manly Bailey funeral home with entombment in Southfield cemetery.

Dr. W. R. Wilson, Long-time Resident Services for Dr. S. Forman Wilson, 1439 Bird, Birmingham, were Tuesday from the Manly Bailey funeral home. Entombment was at the Temple of Memories, White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Dr. Wilson died Friday at tables Convalescent Home after a long illness. He was 80. He was a graduate of Louisville University School of Medicine and a former member of the American Medical Association and the Wayne Medical Association.

Congo Missionary To Lecture Jan. 8

The Rev. Kenneth Earhart, a Methodist missionary in the Congo, will give an illustrated lecture on Africa, at 8:30 p.m. Jan. 8 at the First Methodist Church, Maple and Pleasant.

Story Hours Resume At Baldwin Library

The Baldwin Public Library's pre-school story hours will resume Tuesday. Registration for the sessions is now open.

Municipal Court In Birmingham

Before Associate Judge Edward Emery Wednesday, Dec. 21. Ronald C. Pope, 27, of Detroit, fined $15 for driving with a revoked license.

Table listing prices for Wrigley's 4-H Club Beef Steaks: Round Steak Trimmed .89 lb, Sirloin Steak Trimmed .99 lb, Chuck Roast Pot Roast Cut .45 lb, T-Bone or Club Steaks $1.19, Porterhouse Steaks $1.29, Beef Rib Roast 1st 5 Ribs .89, Beef Short Ribs .49, Chuck Roasts Center Cuts .55, Chuck Roast Round Bone or English .69.

Specially Priced for Holiday Entertaining

Table listing prices for Hills Bros., Chase & Sanborn or Beech-Nut (special label) products: Fresh Tomatoes 19¢, Coca Cola 6¢, Potato Chips 49¢, Swiss Cheese 49¢, Vernor's 6¢, Orange Juice 89¢.

Advertisement for Wrigley's Coffee: 1-Lb. Can With Coupon 49¢. Includes coupon and promotional text.