Trips and Parties Fill Holiday Season

Many residents in the North Adams area are dashing off to spend the holiday season in warmer climates while others are looking forward to the ice and snow at home.

The Harry Mackays of Breiby drive entertained at a holiday open house for a group of 49 friends just before Christmas. On Thursday the Mackays will be joining the William Wilsons of Royal Oak in New York and will then leave on a three-week Caribbean cruise. Their plans include stops at Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands where they will take a schooner on a tour of the many surrounding islands dotting the area. A few days will be spent in Jamaica and then on to Sarasota, Fla. before their trip homeward.

The M. J. Greens of North Adams road will be spending the holiday season in the sun, sand and surf at Pompano Beach, Fla. where they plan to stay until late spring. Christmas Day was spent in Fort Lauderdale with former Detroit residents, Mr. and Mrs. James Waters.

The Fred Cornetts of Hickory Heights drive entertained at a holiday dinner party on Friday evening. Their guests, all of Hickory Heights subdivision, included the Louis Horvaths, the Robert Coulters, the Fred Triceys, the Sherman McDonalds and the Jack Kingcetts.

The Cornetts left on Monday for a week of holiday visiting in Washington, D. C. and stops in Virginia. In Falls Church, Va. they will visit Mrs. Cornetts' mother, Mrs. Harriett McNeil.

The Richard Burtons will be entertaining at New Year's Eve party in their Rock Spring drive home this year.

Among the 14 couples planning to attend will be Hickory Heights neighbors the Anthony Zaars, the James Benets, the Richard Roeders, the Frederick Lindabury, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Badalament, Dr. and Mrs. Jay Van Zoeren and the William Gardiners of Port Huron, formerly of Birmingham.

The Glynedebourne road home of the Keith Jenkins will be the destination of a large group of friends on New Year's Eve. The Jenkins family room will be decorated with the traditional old man and the "1961 baby," as their guests dance away the evening and enjoy the buffet.

The Fred Sticks will be entertaining at a New Year's Eve party in their home on Stonebridge road. Their guests will be the Frederick Sticks and the Beverly, Mildred of Hickory Bend road and the Robert Alkens of Grosse Pointe.

Spending the holiday season with the Irving A. Duffys of Manor road and their son and family, are Frank H. Duffys of Boston, Mass. Mrs. Duffys and children, Lisa and Stephen, flew in last Sunday while Duffy completed his studies at Harvard Medical School and motored here on Wednesday.

Home for Christmas from Boston University are Peggy and Tom, children Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harris of Hickory Heights drive. Also spending the holidays with the family is Miss Cathy Selkirk of Boston, Mass., a sister of Mrs. Harris.

The family gathered on Christmas Day at the Grosse Pointe home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grynski after and much-late of the Harries.

Ross Smith of Boston, Mass. arrived home to spend the Christmas holiday weekend with his parents, the Donald Smiths of Oakhill drive.

Son, David, a lieutenant in the U. S. Navy stationed at San Diego, will be spending the holidays at the grange ranch in Headlands, Calif. with his fiancée, Miss Grace Mann, and her parents, the Fred Manns, who journey each year to the ranch from Seattle, Wash.

The Richard Spauldings of Pine Hill drive spent Christmas Eve in Flint at the home of the Gerald Gauthiers, relatives of Mrs. Spaulding. Guests at the Spauldings on Christmas Day were Mr. and Mrs. George Spaulding, Sr. and the George G. Spauldings, Jr. of Flint.

The Frederick Olivers of Hickory Heights drive and their daughter, and son-in-law, the William Wilshire, spent the Christmas weekend at the Park Ridge, Ill. home of Mrs. Wilshire's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wilshire.

The Olivers will be spending the Christmas dinner with the Robert Grundts of Cincinnati, Ohio. Festivities will include a formal souper and a belated turkey dinner. The Grundts are former Pine Hill subdivision residents and now are parents of a six month old son, Steven.

The Olivers' son Ron will be spending Christmas in Korea where he is stationed with the U. S. Army. His family and friends keep him posted on all the "at home news" via tape recordings. Ron is expected home in April.

A holiday champagne punch party was hosted by the William Gordons of Robinhood Circle drive for a group of Ridgedale Players, before dance time at the Ridgedale Players' playhouse in Oak Park an evening recently. Among the 26 guests were the Richard Bairds and the William Hughes of Birmingham and the Richard Edwards of Green Lake.

The Louis Horvaths family of Hickory Heights drive a party Christmas at the Flint home of grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horvath. Other relatives gathering there for the day were the Edward Horvaths of Birmingham and the Paul Carlsons of Flint.

Celebrating his sixth birthday on the afternoon of New Year's Eve will be Mark Horvath, son of the Louis Horvath. He has invited a group of his pals for a luncheon party and games.

Christmas Day guests at the James Charters' home on Breby drive were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Blake of Beverly Hills and the Robert J. Brown family of East Detroit. The Charters family motored to Toughton Lake this week to visit and returned with Charters' mother for a family party on New Year's Eve.

Bruce Charters will be celebrating his 18th birthday at home on Friday evening with a record hop. Invitations have gone out to a group of school friends.

A Christmas Eve open house was hosted by the Bruce Butlers of Clybourn road for friends and neighbors.
