Twin Sons Will Join In New Year's Day Fun

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Dean Coffin and their four sons, who are spending the holidays in their home on North Cranbrook road, have invited their friends for open house on New Year's Day.

Twin Will and Fred are home for the holidays from Western Reserve Academy in Ohio and Tris is home from Brown University in Rhode Island. His twin, Howard, is scheduled to arrive this week from Fort Jackson, S. C., where he is stationed with the Army.

Houseguests from Cape Cod have arrived to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wollering of Yarmouth. Their guests are Miss Cecile Allen, well-known artist who recently returned from a lecture tour in Australia, and Will Rogers, noted sculptor.

The Wollering's gave a Christmas dinner party last Friday for Mrs. Wollering's nieces and nephews.

Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White of Yarmouth were Mrs. Williams' sister and family, the Peter DellaPartens and their two children. They came from Toronto for Christmas weekend. The Williams' son Richard is home for the holidays from Princeton.

Coming to live with Mr. and Mrs. Richard William Brown of North Cranbrook road and just in time for her first American Christmas is Florence Casalis, an AFS student from Strasbourg, France. She attends Kingswood school and will be living with the Browns until June.

The Brown's son, Richard, is home for the holidays from Dartmouth college and Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Ralph W. McMullen of Grand Rapids, is with them for the holidays.

Spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bauer of Broadway boulevard is Mrs. Bauer's mother, Mrs. R. C. Forbes of Chicago.

Spending Christmas Day with the Bauers as they have for the past 10 years were Mr. and Mrs. Randall Crabb, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Muesel and Mrs. Myrtle Bold.

The Bauer's daughter, Arne, who is home from U of M, entertained 20 former Seaholm high classmates at a Christmas dinner party on Wednesday evening of last week.

GILBERT LAKE—Holiday happenings at the Francis Gallaudet home on Shadow Lane are becoming rarer all the time as more of their family arrive in time to greet the coming New Year.

Arriving yesterday from Hamilton, New York were the Gallaudet's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sturgis. Just before Christmas Ed flew in from Coral Gables, Fla. He is a student at the University of Miami. He graduates in January.

Another daughter, Andy, is home from MSU. She entertained friends at a luncheon Tuesday. Guests were Jan Lynch, Niki Nixon of Rochester, N. Y., Susan Carlinghouse, Anne Skae, Sally Whittingham, Sally Walker and Janet Everhardus of Ann Arbor.

Spending Christmas day with the Gallaudets was Klaus von Rorber, Austrian ski instructor who is instructing at the Otsego Ski club.

LONE PINE HEIGHTS—Holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Hillier of Cimarron drive are their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hillier of Arlington, Virginia. They arrived just before Christmas with their infant daughter, Leslie Carolyn who was christened Dec. 27 at Redeemer Lutheran church.

WING LAKE—A Christmas guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Odle of Worthington is Katrina Quintus. She arrived last week from Buffalo, N. Y. to spend a week with the Odles.

Shortly before Christmas the Pochelons' daughter, Kris, was hostess to some 40 members of the French club at Bloomfield Hills High School for their French dinner party. The guests planned the menu, brought the food, cleaned up after the dinner then went to the Art Institute to see a French movie.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Crabb of Wing Lake Road held open house Christmas Eve for some 40 friends.

LONE PINE ACRES—A new garden club was recently organized in Lone Pine Acres. Mrs. Dugald Black, past president of the Indiana State Garden Club, invited prospective members of Lone Pine Garden Club to Devon Gables for luncheon.

They returned to Mrs. Black's Malibu drive home for their first meeting at which Mrs. Keith Willoughby, district director of the Federated Garden Clubs, presented an illustrated talk on Christmas decorations.

Officers of the Lone Pine Garden Club are Mrs. Dugald Black, president; Mrs. James Coquilhard, vice president; Mrs. S. T. Salvage, secretary and Mrs. Frank Cantrell, treasurer.

Charter members include the officers and Mrs. Ted Bloom, Mrs. J. A. Genovese, Mrs. Edward Glowacke, Mrs. A. T. Hastings and Mrs. J. C. Lichy, as well as Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Mrs. R. P. Magnuson, Mrs. E. A. Powley, Mrs. O. K. Search, Mrs. Mansell Wiley and Mrs. J. R. Willingham.
