Band Members To Tour Russia

Passports to Russia and other foreign countries, "shots" at the Health Service and the many other details involved in overseas travel are high on the agenda for 24 University of Michigan students.

They are the members of the University's Symphony band which, under the direction of William D. Revelli, will leave Feb. 18 for an extensive tour of the Soviet Union, several satellite countries as well as certain eastern Mediterranean countries.

ATTENDING from the Birmingham area include Marjorie A. Stettbacher, 19045 Hillcrest, clarinet and Robert F. Garrett, 7048 Sweetbriar, French horn.

The band will be traveling until the end of May under sponsorship of the United States Department of State with all of the expenses covered by the President's Special International Program for Cultural Presentation.

Plans for a concert in New York City's Carnegie Hall on June 2, to mark the band's return to this country, are being developed.

THE NIGHT AFTER CHRISTMAS

'Tis the Night After Christmas and all through the house not a creature is stirring—not even a mouse. The housework is finished—all is shining and neat—our household appliances just can't be beat! The stockings still hang by the chimney with pride; St. Nicholas came and slipped gifts inside. (Our chimney is used mainly for show—the heat's Automatic you'd certainly know). The children are nestled all snug in their beds, dreaming of Santa—their dolls and their sleds. While Mom in her kerchief and I in my cap are just settling down for a long winter's nap. As I leave the light burning by the stairs in the hall, I think of our servants who don't sleep at all. Automatic appliances that help to perform such duties as keeping the family warm. It's a cinch that they're needed by all the folks here—not only at Christmas but all through the year! Now, our joys all around us, good will burning bright—we say Merry Christmas—and to all a Good Night!
