

An unknown 15th Century writer said: "Thou shalt know HIM when He comes not by any din of drums, nor the vanage of HIS air, nor by anything HE wears; neither by HIS crown, nor HIS gown, for HIS PRESENCE knows shall be by the HOLY HARMONY that HIS coming makes in thee." These few words contain whole volumes, when studied, pondered in the environment of "hungering and thirsting for righteousness".

Attendants Gowned In Blue Peau de Soie

St. James Episcopal church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Barbara Abbott and William Stanley Fay. The Rev. A. Fletcher Plant officiated at the 4:30 o'clock ceremony.

MRS. WILLIAM S. FAY

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Abbott of Lake view drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Fay of Franklin road, Franklin.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown fashioned of white silk taffeta designed with a deep portrait neckline, fitted bodice and elbow length sleeves accented with alienen lace and seed pearls.

A four-tiered Swedish fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations, lily of the valley and ivy centered with two white orchids.

HONOR ATTENDANT was Susan McCombe and bridesmaids were Marilyn Bishop, Margaret Hayes, Barbara Brandt, Janet Fay, Mrs. Howard Hawkins and Mrs. Louis Truesdell.

They were gowned in royal blue peau de soie sateen cocktail dresses designed with bateau necklines, done skirts and pleated silk chiffon bodices. They carried cascades of white amaranth lilies, blue forget-me-nots and variegated ivy.

JAMES DOUGLAS stood as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Morgan, John S. Van Alstyne III, Robert J. Smith, John Jacobs, Howard Hawkins and Louis Truesdell.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Abbott chose a silver brocade cocktail dress with blue accessories. Mother of the groom selected a champagne brocade cocktail length dress with coon brown accessories. Both mothers had cymbidium orchid corsages.

THE NEW Mrs. Fay wore a turquoise wool sheath for her wedding trip to New York. They will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers

Foreign Aid will be the topic for discussion at the February unit meetings of the Birmingham League of Women Voters Feb. 8, 9 and 10.

Mrs. Walter Jackson and her committee Mrs. Angus McRay, Mrs. Donald Spurrell, Mrs. Lee Spanier and Mrs. Norman Weston will present a "Do It Yourself" kit for International Relations.

All women in the area interested in the league are invited to attend the unit meetings. Hostesses for this month are: Mrs. P. F. Hilder, 1131 Lyonhurst, Feb. 8, 1-3 p.m.; Mrs. John Willingham, 4901 Mailbut, Feb. 9, 1-3 p.m.

Birmingham-Troy Republican Club's February Meeting

The Birmingham-Troy Republican women's club will hold its next meeting 10 a.m. Feb. 11 at Showcase, Inc. in Birmingham. Gordon Getzinger, chairman of the recruit for 60 Committee, a trustee on the Bloomfield Township board of supervisors and one of four members from Oakland county to the State central committee, will speak on "The Functions and Responsibilities of the State Central Committee."

THIS WILL be the second in a series of educational lectures offered to the group.

At the first lecture members heard Dr. John Dempsey, associate professor of political science at the University of Detroit, say that political apathy is our greatest danger. He said, "The only effective way to participate in government is through political parties."

Blood Bank Volunteers Set Meeting

The Red Cross will hold an orientation meeting for all volunteer workers for the Birmingham community blood banks on Feb. 8 at 9:30 a.m. at the First Methodist church in Birmingham. Red Cross kits will be distributed at this time.

Feb. 29, a Blood bank will be sponsored by the First Methodist church. March 2, blood donations will be accepted at the Birmingham community house, the drive to be sponsored by the American association of university women. The hours from 3-9 p.m. on these days are set aside to accommodate donors.

It is hoped that 500 pints of blood will be secured in the two drives, to be credited to the Birmingham community blood bank.
