Piety Hill's 25th Birthday

At 12:30 p.m. Feb. 9, Piety Hill chapter DAR will celebrate its 25th birthday with a luncheon at the Birmingham community house. Honored that day will be the organizing members and their first Regent, Mrs. William L. Graham. Other guests will include ten Regents from chapters in the neighboring areas, and Mrs. Claude Cruso, state chairman of the Good Citizens.

Two local girls, Emily Minor of Birmingham and JoAnn Udell of Clawson who were recently chosen as Good Citizens, will receive their award pins. Erwin Darling will also present the American Field Service international scholarship students. Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mesdames Everett W. Allen, Charles Emer, Charles Baker Jr., J. Vinton Birch, Charles Butters, Glenn H. Coley, Mark Harris and Fred Lindholm.

'Space Age,' Topic At AAUW Luncheon

Speaking on the "Impact of the Space Age on Society" before the American association of university women, Feb. 10, will be Eilene Marie Galloway, special consultant to the senate special committee on space and astronauts.

Coming from Washington to speak before the group at their monthly luncheon in the Birmingham community house, Mrs. Galloway is well qualified to translate the world of scholarly research into a form in which it is of practical politics.

WORKING WITH the Senate committee since her appointment in 1958, she has been concerned with the study of space exploration and with the establishment of a civilian organization to handle beneficial application of the satellites.

She was educated at Swarthmore college and the American university graduate school. She is listed in directory of American scholars, American men of science, Who's Who of American Women and Who's Who in American Education. She is married to George Barnes Galloway who is in Who's Who in America in his own right for his work with Congress. They have two grown sons, newspaper editor, David and artist, Jonathan Galloway.

AAUW IS AGAIN sponsoring a Community blood bank drive for the American Red Cross. It will be at the Community house March 2 from 3 to 9 p.m.

She's Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Cassidy of Royal Oak have announced the engagement of their daughter, Maureen Elizabeth, to Robert J. Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Dunn of Detroit. The wedding is planned for August 20 at Shrine of the Little Flower church.

MRS. VICTOR NELSON, JR.

Attendants Wear Gowns of Satin

Barbara Luise Klopfer became the bride of Victor Edwin Nelson, Jr. Saturday evening in the sanctuary of the First Methodist church of Royal Oak. The Rev. Paul S. Durham officiated at the 7:30 double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Dr. and Mrs. Oskar Klopfer of Echo lane, Bloomfield Hills, and Dr. and Mrs. Victor E. Nelson of Royal Oak.

THE BRIDE wore a Swiss embroidered, bustle, waist length gown with short sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Her veil was crowned with a Juliet cap, high lighted with seed pearls. She wore silhouette gauntlets to match her dress. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Attending the bride at maid of honor was Judith Nelson. The bride's sisters, Mrs. Patrick Radowick and Ulrike Klopfer were bridesmaids.

THEY WORE tulle and satin dresses with bouquets of pink carnations.

John Munroe Nelson, the bridegroom's best man, acted as best man. Ushers were Kwang Hui Wu of Hong Kong, Donald Houever of Southfield, Frederick Nabalajan of Royal Oak, George Hess of Walled Lake and Thomas Nott of Romeo.

THE NEWLYWEDS received guests in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony. Following the reception, the couple left for a week in Bermuda.

Upon their return, they will reside in Ann Arbor, where Mr. Nelson will resume his studies in the University of Michigan dental school.

Show Goes Oriental

Birmingham alumnae of College Sorosis of the University of Michigan will present a fashion show and tea 2 p.m. Feb. 17 at the Birmingham community house. Tea will be served, during which time Mrs. Shad Ling will display her collection of original oriente costume. Proceeds will benefit the Senior Citizens' Guild.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—at the society editor about them.

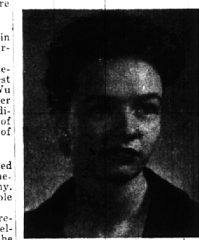

Play to Benefit State Hospital

"Nude With Violin" at St. Dunstan's Playhouse, Granbrook, will be sponsored by the North Woodward alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma Feb. 18.

Proceeds from the play will go to the Pontiac State hospital fundation for emotionally disturbed children.

WORKING on the ticket sale and assisting Mrs. Richard V. Anderson, Bloomfield Hills, chairman of the ways and means committee for the afternoon group are Mrs. W. E. Mosher, Jr., Mrs. Robert Close, Mrs. John J. Russell, Mrs. Charles F. Mason and Mrs. Rollin E. Gish, all of Birmingham.

Those assisting Mrs. Adrian V. Wenderham of Dover road, Birmingham, chairman of the ways and means committee for the evening group are Mrs. Henry M. Hogan, Jr., Mrs. William E. Ludwig and Mrs. Frank Carlson.

BARBARA JANE McINNIS Parents Announce Daughter's Troth

Engagement of Barbara Jane McInnis to John Marquis Ballantyne is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. McInnis of Huntington Woods. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Arthur Beaune of New Canaan, Conn., and Mr. Ronald Ballantyne of Bloomfield Hills. She is a graduate of Michigan State university and he of Wayne State university.

A summer wedding is being planned.

Have You Met...

The residents of 1806 Graefield? Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Kretz moved from Lancaster, Pa., on Dec. 1. He is employed by Chrysler Corp. They have two sons, Arvid, Jr. and Allan. Hobby is golfing.

Auxiliary Dinner

Women's auxiliary to the Oakland county dental society met Tuesday at the Kingsley Inn for dinner. Members discussed current events.
