SENIOR MEN'S CLUB: The Birmingham Senior Men's Club was entertained at their Jan. 23rd meeting by a very fine talk and color slides by Donald Kratt, Safety Director of Oakland County.

His subject "Rescue Breathing" was most interesting and emphasized the great work and responsibility of the department which patrols 920 square miles and 423 lakes in the county.

Forty-five men and three divers compose the water patrol and serve in cases of drownings, heart attacks, asphyxiation or whatever rescue breathing can be applied.

After the regular meeting the discussion group, under moderator Harry E. Fromm took up the subject of "Juvenile Delinquency" which was thoroughly outlined by Lt. R. Schaepe, pinpointing parent responsibility in this matter.

The speaker at the next meeting on Feb. 5, will be Dr. Harry Pierce, prominent obstetrician. His subject will be "Hypnosis."
