Troy News Briefs

Yanich's Status Must Be Tested

Whether or not Louis Yanich resigned member of Troy city commission, whose resignation was received with a tie three-three commission vote, still has a right in the city which he has tested in court, the complaint to be filed by a non-official citizen of the commission.

10 SDD Licenses Approved in Troy

TROY — Troy city commissioners Monday approved 10 applicants for packaged liquor licenses despite the protest of Robert D. Troy, who argues that the larger tax figure was justified, but that he will look for the city to support his claim for a refund.

City manager David W. Hesse said that the city's position was justified, but that he will look for the city to support his claim for a refund.

Voters to Decide Tax Refund Cases

To compensate for an excessive tax assessment which amounts to $65,000, the city commissioners last week approved placing the question of refunding the money to those taxed on the ballot.

Auditions Slated

The Southfield Kiwanis club will hold auditions Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Southfield Hotel, on Southfield road, for their March 24-25 and 26-27, anyone with talent may try out.

Theatre Asks Tax Assessment Be Cut

Owners of the Troy Drive-in Theatre, the Troy Holding Co., have requested that the city refund an alleged over-assessment tax amounting to $55,900. It is claimed by the taxpayer that Troy's assessor's tax of $118,300 was paid in error by the company's auditors, and that the tax they should have paid amounted to only $62,400.
