$15,000 GM Valentine

An early valentine from General Motors to Junior Achievement was presented by Louis C. Goad (right), 271 Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, GM executive vice president, to Miss Diane Lanzetta (left), president of JA's Jamazo company, makers of an oven cleaner, and secretary of the Midwest Achievers association. Along with the heart, GM sent a check for $15,000, the company's contribution to the 1960 Junior Achievement Fund (campaign in southeastern Michigan. Miss Lanzetta represents more than 7,500 area teen-agers operating 356 JA companies. On hand for the presentation was Edwin H. Mosler, Jr. (center), national president of Junior Achievement.

Five Industrial Leaders To Host 1960 Conference

Five Detroit industrial leaders comprise the American Society of Tool and Manufacturing Engineers' Honorary Host committee for the 1960 Engineering conference and exhibit in the Motor City April 21 to 28.

Serving on the committee are L. L. Gallert, 491 Martell drive, Bloomfield Hills, president of Chrysler corporation; Malcolm P. Ferguson, 31059 Stafford drive, Beverly Hills, president of Bendix Aviation corporation; Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motor company; John F. Gordon, 1800 Rathorn, Bloomfield Hills, president of General Motors corporation; and George Romney, 1830 E. Valley road, Bloomfield Hills, president of American Motors corporation.

CONCURRENT WITH the conference, the Society will stage a scientific and educational exposition at the Artillery Armory, W. Eight Mile road. More than 500 exhibitors will participate. The program will include 17 plant tours, 24 technical sessions, and a two day Seminar. Over thirty five thousand manufacturing executives and engineers from around the nation are expected in Detroit for the eight day conference.

Abstract Company Purchases Stock

Purchase of the large majority of the stock of the Fred Burton Abstract company has been completed by Burton Abstract & Title company, according to Edson Burton, 1205 Harrow Circle, president. The Fred Burton Abstract company does business in Oakland, Washburn and Lapeer counties, with main offices in Pleasant Ridge and other offices in Pontiac, Lapeer, Ann Arbor and Birmingham. William Conn, 445 Middletown, W. Bloomfield, president of the Fred Burton Abstract company, will continue in the organization, and will be a vice president of Burton Abstract & Title company. One of the oldest abstract companies in the nation, Burton was founded in Michigan in 1805.

Craft Attends Sales Meeting

Stan G. Craft, 20515 Rock Creek drive, is attending Philip Carey Manufacturing company's national sales meeting this week in Cincinnati, Ohio. Craft is a sales representative for the company. Carey produces a wide range of products for the building industry, highway and pipeline construction and for manufacturing industries.

MOST ADVANTAGEOUS MUNICIPAL PRICES

Even when tax exemption meant very little, due to low income tax rates, yields were not equal to those available today.

Let us explain how a 4 1/2% tax free bond is equal to a 12% return on a stock if you report a net income of $35,000 for income tax purposes.
