Many dinner parties have been already planned by Birmingham area couples in anticipation of Opening Night (Feb. 29) of "Look Homeward, Angel", starring Miriam Hopkins, at the Cass theatre. Based on the novel by Thomas Wolfe, the play has won the Pulitzer Prize and the New York Drama Critics award.

SPONSORING the benefit theatre party opening night is St. Martha's Guild of St. James Episcopal church, 1215 Chestnut street, Christian relations work.

Mrs. Andrew M. Gent of Pierce street, and Mr. Gent will be with a group dining at the Poulchartrain before the opening night performance. With them will be Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. James R. David, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Dean G. Beier, Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Carrell, Mr. and Mrs. James Everett, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Pell Hollingshead, and Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Payton will dine together at the Caucus club before the opening night performance of "Look Homeward, Angel".

Dining together at the DAC before the show will be Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McConnell, Jr. of W. W. Throp lane and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Dye, Jr. of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin T. Howes, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wardle, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Hartley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott of Pierce street will be dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith of Sheffield road at the Detroit Boat club before the benefit performance.

Dinner at Hills CC

The Allman family gathered last Thursday evening for dinner at the Bloomfield Hills country club. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Allman of Cranbrook road, Mrs. L. S. and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Allman and their children, Susan, John and Bobby of Kimberley road, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Allman with their children, Lyone and Margot of Ardmore drive. Purpose of the get-together—a farewell party for the Richard Allmans, who with the Ralph C. Gettings of Bryn Mawr drive, left for a month's vacation in Europe the following morning.

The previous evening the Allmans were honored at a cocktail and buffet dinner by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bagley of Burning Bush road. Among the 32 guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Allman and Mrs. Bagley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bent of Ridgewood, N. J., six guests of the Bagleys who were house-hunting here at dinner time soon be moving to the Birmingham area themselves.

Spiral flowers, yellow tulips and white snapdragons and stephanotis, enhanced the gold and white dinner of the Bagleys at their own voyage party.

Dog's Life in N. Y.

Mrs. Winston T. Kellogg of Northlawn road returned late last night after having taken her collie, Ch. Dehbill Razzle Dazzle, to the dog show at Madison Square Garden in New York City, sponsored by the Westminster Kennel club, this annual event is the very top showing of dogs in the North American Continent.

Ch. Dehbill Razzle Dazzle, who was nine months old, had won the National Puppy sweepstakes in Louisville, Ky., and had won five major shows for his championship.

This year he won "Best of Breed" in the three major shows in this part of the country and placed in group judging. One of the most unusual aspects of this dog is that he is owned, bred, owned, owned, and owner handled. Mrs. Kellogg's main interest in the genetics of fine breeding, she has produced a collie with many fine characteristics.
