

Better Connections

Interconnection of all US-10 traffic signals between Oak street, Birmingham, and 10 1/2 Mile road, Royal Oak, is planned by the state highway department. Birmingham this week approved its $17.50 triple to the new system, and a 75-cent additional monthly maintenance charge. To buy or sell a used automobile read and use Eccentric Classified Ads.

—Professional Service to the Birmingham Area for Over 37 Years—

Now, Help for Those Who Need Legal Aid

Answering a need that has long existed here, the Oakland County Legal Aid society was recently organized, and has just opened its offices at 221 National building in Pontiac.

The society is designed to handle civil cases for those who cannot afford such services.

FURTHER, those who can afford to pay, but are unfamiliar with legal matters, can receive advice from the society.

Attorney for the society is Norman K. Barnard of Troy, Franklin Fricker of Franklin and George M. Watson, of Bloomfield Hills, are on the board of directors. Mrs. Maxwell Matthews and Mrs. Sidney Smith represent the Junior League of Birmingham on the board.

This project has been made possible through the joint efforts of the Oakland County Bar association, the Junior League of Birmingham and the Ford foundation.

Individual members of the Bar Association have been handling 60 to 80 charity cases each month, and an additional 175 Legal Aid cases have been handled by the Detroit Legal aid. The number of charity cases demonstrated the need for such a society in Oakland County.
