THE BILLBOARD

BLOOMFIELD HILLS HIGH By Mike Zwieg

They Often Go Hand-in-Hand

Fund raising and the arts were of utmost importance at BHHS last week. The Foreign Student Fund is being constantly increased by the continued sales of flags, and the goal of $1,000 is being sought after tonight at a pancake supper at the high school cafeteria.

A full dinner will be served to all from 5:30 until 7:30 this evening, so if you are tired of washing dishes and would like to eat out inexpensively, come by tonight and help bring a foreign student to BHHS.

Last Friday, amid great discussions of The Jack Paar Show, many students, all members of the Dramatics club, lived by the old adage—"the show must go on"—and their nocturnal disappointments, and presented two one-act plays with considerable precision.

The first, entitled "Old Ghosts at Home," starred Sue Fry, Jim Wolfe, Rev. Chiezer, Nick Steen, and Jack Bohr, with a host of other celebrities.

The other, "It's Cold in Them Thar Hills," a rustic piece depicting ing hillbilly marital problems, featured Bill Merrill, Jim Odle, Geri Loners and many others. Two monologues, given by Gretchen Kushwa and Karen Carter, were integral parts of the program.

Here and there: Phi Sigma Tau sponsored a dance last Saturday, the Sweetheart Swirl. Each couple had their names printed on a small heart-happy Valentine's day.

Book club met again to discuss "Brave New World" and the "Hidden Persuaders"; the meeting was at the home of Carolyn Whittaway.

Dateline Derby Kingswood
They Will Play Column
In Earnest and In a Contest

by Brenda Drumm

Derby's Band I will be appearing in a Michigan Band festival in Northville, Saturday, Feb. 20. The band will be rated on sight-reading, several required numbers, and various other technical points by experienced judges. The band is under the direction of Mr. Jones.

Several Derby students from each grade have been chosen to aid in the setting up of a Teen Code in Birmingham. Jeff Pardee and Alan Talbot represent the ninth grade; Mike Sheldon and Judy Holt the eighth, and John Franovitch, Warren Swaney, and Luanne Goyeau represent the seventh grade.

The code is in the planning stage. It'll have more information on it as it progresses. All this week, Derby students and teachers have been donating "used, but usable" clothing for the annual clothing drive. There is one more day left, so remember someone needy with a few articles of clothing.

Over 200 eighth grade students have applied for the Sodium Fluoride treatments. The treatments will begin Feb. 24.

We like "if you notice someone who has lost his smile, be sure and give him one of yours."

Kerosene replaced whale oil as a means of illumination. When it's summer in California it's also summer in China.
