FOR THE MONEY, this is the area's best investment in good living.

REASONS WHY

History

Bought new in January 1956—on a big unimproved lot among well-spaced more expensive ranch homes. For sale today, 4 years, 1 month later—an attractive home, everything in order and complete.

Something about the owners.

Bob and Peggy are Scotch at that enviable age—beyond youth but some years away from middle age. They have spent about $5,000 making their property ship-shape in the finest Scottish tradition of home ownership. Why did they do it? Scotch people don't spend that kind of money gleefully, we know that. They spent it because they are perfectionists and their location warranted it.

Importance of good location.

So many people say: "If we could buy outside of Birmingham, we would like to be west of the city, but stay East of Telegraph." That's where this property is: East of Telegraph, south of the Oakland Hills Country Club.

The house itself.

It's the Most of the Best for the Least. It is offered at $31,500 in this preferred location with these features: 3 bedrooms, 2 full ceramic tiled baths, paneled and beamed family room with brick walled fireplace, screened porch, fully equipped farm kitchen.

Ideal for a small family.

This attractive colonial styled one floor brick ranch with a circular drive on a professionally landscaped lot is ideal for a family with 2 children. It is not for a large family. You wouldn't expect a sleek Thunderbird to provide the space accommodation of a Buick station wagon.

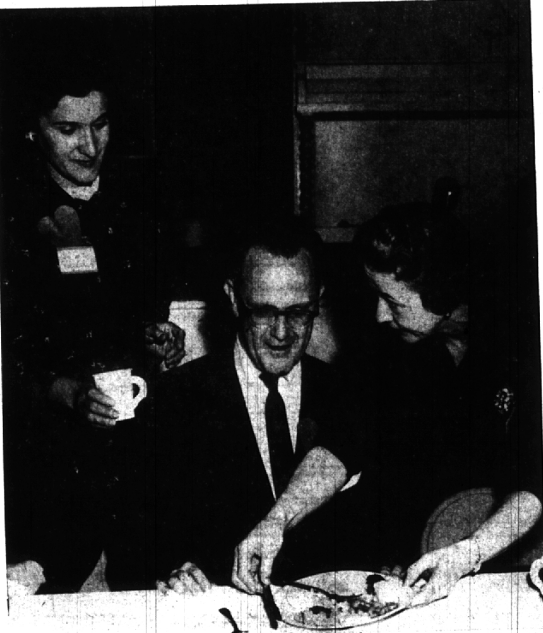

What it can do for you.

Bob and Peggy have enjoyed their 4 years of ownership, but he cannot commute from Chicago. You too would enjoy it. Call us today. Let us show it.
