Hills' Scouts-Brownies Observe 'Thinking Day'

The Girl Scouts and Brownies of the Bloomfield Hills area observed Thinking Day Monday by presenting programs in their respective schools.

The members of the girl scout movement in every part of the world spend part of this day thinking about their founder, Lord Baden-Powell, and the scouts of their own country and foreign countries.

THIS SPECIAL day has been set aside to promote friendship, fellowship, and citizenship throughout the world.

At Hickory Grove school the leader of troop 865, Mrs. Edwin Lau, 2745 Ayshire dr., helped the 4th grade brownies become proficient in the flag ceremony that opened the program.

Mrs. Wm. Steimlosk, 2830 Colonial Way, and 3rd grade troop 298 with Mrs. John Conde, 1340 Fieldway, and the 4th grade Troop 75 did a Swedish song and dance.

THE MAKING of the first flag of the United States was portrayed by the 6th grade troop 215.

Their leader is Mrs. Eugene Napala of 2332 Rutherford. With the help of their leader, Mrs. R. Pinkerman, 2040 Chickering Lane, troop 449 made puppets dressed as Mexican girl scouts and put on a very amusing show.
