'Keynotes of Fashion for Spring,' Theme of Styles Shown at Teas

'Keynotes of Fashion for Spring, '60' will be the theme for Detroit's most authoritative spring fashion teas scheduled March 8-9 at 2:30 p.m. in the 12th floor auditorium of the J. L. Hudson Co., downtown store and sponsored by the Women's association for the Detroit symphony orchestra.

The early teas of Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills patronesses includes Mesdames John R. Davis, John H. Gabel, Leonard G. Grinnell, George W. Thomas, George T. Trumbull, Romney C. Van dergrist and Theodore O. Ytzen.

MRS. HENRY R. Klein, ways and means chairman, heads this year's showings staged to benefit the orchestra maintenance fund. Madelyn Coe, Hudson's famed fashion coordinator, will be the commentator.

Assisting Mrs. Klein will be Mesdames Alfred L. Truesdell, co-chairman; Richard W. Tucker and Stephen Forish, ticket co-chairmen; Walter Cavanaugh, patroness; James B. Webber Jr., and Hansel D. Wilson, hostess and tea chairman; David Gamble, prologue; and Bernard P. Pearse, consultant.

THE WOMEN'S association will review the orchestra's many services to its home community and its prominence in the world's gallery of great institutions in the prologue preceding each show. Members will model clothes "Just Right" for each of the many concert series offered by the orchestra as Mrs. Gamble narrates.
