

Birmingham Girl
Queen at Alpena HS

Nancy Olsen, 19101 Hillcrest, has been elected Basketball Homecoming queen at Alpena high school, where she is a senior.
Nancy, who transferred from Birmingham high school in her junior year, was elected because "she is friendly, well-liked and a good worker," according to a report in the Alpena News.

FOR AND ABOUT TODAY'S YOUTH

Dry Run

The whole thing is just an act; the girls aren't even old enough to drive, but Beverly Hills patrolman Jerry Burden gives four Groves high school students the chance to feel what it's like to get a ticket in a harmless lesson. The girls invited the patrolman to the high school to show a safety film as an extra-credit project. The "passengers" and "driver" are (from left) Carol Klasse, Judy Andrews, Ruth Donaldson and Sherry Vasko.

Cranbrook Corridor
BY TOM JONES

Last Saturday evening, Feb. 20, Cranbrook's small gym was the scene of the Foreign A-Fair.
The A-Fair, an annual carnival whose purpose is to raise money for the Foreign Student fund, was held from 7:30 to 10:30. This fund is used to contribute to the two organizations that bring foreign students to Cranbrook—The American Field service program and that of the English Speaking Union.

At the present time, Marcus de Lucena of Brazil and Tim Morgan of England are attending the school on fellowships provided by these organizations.

This year's goal is to raise $1,000 for the fund to make the same programs available for two more students next year.
The year's A-Fair was supervised by Tim Coughlin, Harvey Croce, and Bill Angel. Each class and several of the school organizations had booths in the gym, gaily decorated with travel posters from all over the world.
The senior class booth, supervised by Neil Thomas, gave guests a chance to try their luck at the roulette wheel.

The juniors, under the supervision of Ted Williams, provided a hoop throw.

The Freshmen and Sophomores, under the direction of Tom Cooper and Rick Rattner respectively, afforded the more athletic visitors the opportunity to demonstrate their abilities at basketball and crasser hockey.
Another booth that aroused a great deal of interest was that selling delicious baked goods provided by the mothers of Cranbrook students under the direction of Mrs. William Mosher.

The camera club took numerous pictures and an auction was held to dispose of a cashmere sweater and other loot contributed by local merchants.

From 9:30 until 10:30 there was dancing to the music of the House-rockers.
The event was a huge success in that the guests contributed an appreciable sum to a very worthy cause.
