

Not all skies are sunny and cloudless... and why should they be? For mankind's earth certainly needs rainfall, and clouds are suspended raindrops. Not all of our days are without some problems, some need to sacrifice one's comfort, one's efforts, even part of one's possessions, for the good of others. Such demands seem, like clouds, to shut off sunshine... but they do bring "raindrops of reward!"

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday, January 7, 1960

SECTION C

They All Have a Date at the Altar

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Couple Feted Sunday

Sunday, a champagne-buffet was the festive occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. McKinley of Northlawn drive, Birmingham, to announce the engagement of their daughter, Gail Ann, to Gale M. Fox, son of Mr. J. B. Wagoner of Saginaw and Ralph Fox of Hemlock, Mich.

Gail graduated from Birmingham high school in 1956 and both she and her husband-to-be attended Michigan State University. A June 25 wedding is planned.

Among the Birmingham area guests who toasted the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Truman Hart, John T. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Chet F. Guilmet, Denise Guilmet, Marnie Wesch, Alix Atwood, Kathy Flaherty, Jane McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Carman Adams, and Mrs. Clifford Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roseberry, and C. J. Seaver.

McCuens to Entertain Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Nevell McCuen of 1014 North Glenhurst road, Birmingham, will hold a neighborhood group meeting at their home Monday at 8 o'clock for members and friends of the Birmingham Unitarian church. Purpose of the gathering is to become better acquainted with the Rev. Lester Mondale, new minister of the Unitarians.

Cocktails at the Hart's Home

Mr. and Mrs. S. Truman Hart of Guilford road, Bloomfield Hills, entertained 40 guests recently at an open house for cocktails. Among the Birmingham area guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Jocelyn, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tullar and Mr. and Mrs. Carl-Morse.

30th Anniversary Celebrated

One-hundred and fifty guests called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Cammareri of Adams road, Sunday when the couple held open house in celebration of their 30th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Cammareri chose pink snapdragons and carnations with white roses for her centerpiece.

Among the guests offering best wishes were the Ray Woodalls, the Lawrence Heintze, the F. G. Garrisons, Dr. and Mrs. George Raynal, the Carl Carlsons, the Francesco DeBlasis, the Hugo Hesses, the Raymond Gages, the William Migleres, the Wallace Reids, Mrs. John Emery Sr., Mrs. Lattie Cousins and her daughter Shirley, the Robert Freemans, the James R. McAlesses, Mrs. T. Melbourne Roberts, the DeHull Travers, the Thomas Hurts and the John Demais.

Open House at McLaughlins

Dr. and Mrs. Charles McLaughlin of Windover road recently entertained guests at an open house. Those attending were Dr. and Mrs. Harold Clark and daughter, Barbara; Dr. and Mrs. Richard Peters, the Jack Boltons, the Jon Gordons, the Wayne Collins, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Sellers, the Roger Bonds and son Charles; and the Robert Haddons.

Scholarship Holders Discussing Plans

Discussing their experiences and future plans with Mrs. Guy Pitts of Wingercoft court, scholarship chairman of the University of Michigan alumnae association of Birmingham, are Michigan students (from left) Mary Alice Thurber, Drew Novak, Jane St. Aubin and Myrna Moxley. The four are holders of full-tuition scholarships awarded by the local alumnae. Drew, who is enrolled in the engineering school, and Jane are freshmen. Mary Alice and Myrna are sophomores. Funds for scholarships are traditionally raised by the group at a tele-

SUSAN C. SUNDBERG

An early fall wedding is planned for Susan Clemens Sundberg and Robert K. Riley. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sundberg of Martell drive, and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Riley of Bloomfield Hills.

Sus attended Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., and is presently attending Michigan State university. She is a member of Sigma Gamma sorority. Bob is a graduate of General Motors institute and a member of Alpha Gamma Upsilon.

PATRICIA H. HOEY

The engagement of Patricia Hamilton Hoey to Charles Preston Whitlock of Cambridge, Mass., is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoey of Cranbrook road, Bloomfield Hills. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Frank B. Whitlock of New Brunswick, N. J.

Patricia was graduated from Kingswood school Cranbrook and from Smith college and is currently associated with the Houghton Mifflin Publishing company in Boston. Her fiancé is a member of the faculty of Harvard university.

ANN OSBORN

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Richard Osborn of Martell drive, Bloomfield Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to Lt. Richard T. Hartzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Hartzell of Anderson, Ind.

Ann is a graduate of Kingswood school and the University of Michigan. She is a member of Phi Beta Phi and is now teaching in Bloomfield Hills. Lt. Hartzell was graduated from Purdue university and received his masters in business administration at U. of M.

SALLY JEANNE FOX

At a family dinner Christmas day in Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Dalmar E. Fox of Alpena announced the engagement of their daughter, Sally Jeanne, to John Warren Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hunter of Bridgeport, Conn.

Sally is a graduate of Michigan State university and is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Her fiancé is a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a member of Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

RUTH ANN EISENBACH

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Eisenbach of Detroit announced the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Ann, to John Roger Parish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Parish of Woodhaven street, Birmingham.

John is a graduate of Michigan State university and a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity. The bride-elect is a senior at Michigan State university.

A June wedding is planned.

Lecturer Farewell Luncheon For Mrs. C. N. King

A farewell luncheon honoring Mrs. Cecil N. King of Larchlea drive, Birmingham, was at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of Delta Zeta alumnae group I. Mrs. Harold Van Dragt of Bird street was the hostess.

"Lunch" as her sorority sisters know her, was presented with a going-away gift as a memento of the group's appreciation of her work as their philanthropic chairman one year, and as their president last year.

MRS. KING, with her son Peter, a sophomore at Seaboard high, and her daughter Lynn, a second grader at Midvale, will be leaving this month for Buenos Aires, Argentina, where they expect to make their home for the next three years.

Her husband, Cecil N. King, is associated with the Chrysler Corp., and has been living in Buenos Aires for the past year. His letters have contained wonderful stories of their new home.

There are 35 families who will be moving to Buenos Aires at the same time.

MUCH PREPARATION and planning has gone into this move by Chrysler Corp. It has even included classes in conversational Spanish being reunited with their husbands and fathers, it

To Meet Tuesday

The evening group of the North Woodward alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma will meet 8 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Douglas L. Symes to see films on Hawaii and the Orient.

A representative of Northwest airlines will present the "High Road to the Orient" and Northwest to Hawaii". Hostesses for the evening are Mesdames Carl Walby, Donald Frankman and William Saffran.

B'ham LWV Sets Five Unit Meets

The five unit meetings of the Birmingham League of women voters will feature a skit called "Politics on the Cornflake Level." This skit will describe voting procedures in this area and answer questions puzzling many people.

Mrs. Douglas Deane will introduce the skit. Members taking part will be Libby Clark, Emily Sloane, Helen Weimick, Barbara Bryant, Ann McCain, and Barbara Talburt.

Hostesses for this month are Mrs. Berrien Ketcham, 748 Sulfield, Jan. 11, 1-3 p.m.; Mrs. Victor Brown, 3010 Franklin road, Jan. 12, 1-3 p.m.; Mrs. Donald Martin, 1011 Brooklawn, Jan. 12, 8-10 p.m.; Mrs. Donald Howarth, 687 Oakland, Jan. 13, 9:30-11:30 a.m.; and Mrs. Paul Wheaton, 1763 Midvale, Jan. 13, 8-10 p.m.

Ruth Shain Classes Resume Tuesday

The Ruth Shain classes will resume for regular weekly sessions 10 a.m. Jan. 12 at the Community house. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

At this meeting there will be a report on the Red China position and Economic Rise of Power and her activities in reference to Soviet Russia. A report will be given by Mrs. George L. Hagman, who lived many years in China.

Moment Musicale Presents Program

The Moment Musicale met at the home of Brenda Ebersole at 119 S. Adams road Dec. 21. Charles Holtz, president, called the meeting to order and announced that there would be a special string ensemble.

Participating were Bill Siep, Harry Steg, Gurdy Harrell, Louise Bohmeyer, Kathy Eddy, Jan Dinkelo, Brenda Ebersole, Fred Post, Kathy Shore, Margaret Hooper, Pat Wiles, Helen Garley, Ann Rush, Sally Weis, and Claudia Kresler. The evening was concluded with group singing.

Anna Steinbaur, Michael Ureel Exchange Vows

Anna Steinbaur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steinbaur of Mt. Pleasant became the bride of Michael F. Ureel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O. Ureel of Buckingham road, Beverly Hills, December 26, in a double-ring ceremony at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church. The Rev. Lucian A. Hebert read the ceremony and offered the nuptial high mass.

Attending the bride as matron-of-honor was Mrs. Eleanor Viviano of Detroit. Attending the groom as best man was Mr. Joseph Hillman of Detroit.

Tri Delas Chat with Alums

Collegiate members of Delta Delta Delta, Quillian, Mrs. N. W. Hyde, the hostess; and Janet Tallman Alumnae members assisting at the invitation of alumnae members for Mrs. Hyde included Mrs. Mrs. Murray Stewart, Mrs. Roger Merritt and Hester Lewis.

W. Hyde December 29. Chatting over coffee are (from left) Nancy Stewart, Mrs. C. B.

Attending Mother-Daughter Luncheon

Members of Birmingham chapter of Christ Child Society gathered last week at Half Moon road, Bloomfield township. Jody Cronin, Heidi Ruen, Brooke Ruen and Mrs. Devon Gables for a mother-daughter luncheon. The youngsters in front are (from left) Richard Ruen of North Cranbrook road, Robin and Shelley Ruen, and in the back row

Kappa Delta Alums Set Tuesday Meet

Kappa Delta alumnae of South Oakland county will meet 8 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Gerald Stone, 4232 Rosewood, Royal Oak. She will be assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Froelich, Mrs. William Hickey and Mrs. John Hume.

"A New Garden for 1960" will be presented by the guest speaker, Jonathan Ball of Birmingham. He will present many new and different ideas in gardening to the members. A business meeting and social hour will follow.