Mr. and Mrs. Robert Somers Honeymooning in Nassau

Bushnell Congregational church was the setting for a candlelight ceremony at 7:30 o'clock on December 26, when Ellen Corinne Moore exchanged vows with Robert William Somers. Ellen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore of Birmingham, and Robert is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Somers of Detroit.

The bride's gown was ivory tulle, covered with medallions of lace held in place with pearls and the bouquet skirt formed a sweeping train. Her fingertip veil was fastened to a tulle of pearls. She carried a white orchid centered in a cascade of stephanotis and ivy.

MATRON OF HONOR was Mrs. Charles Foley, sister of the groom, and bridesmaids were Ann Lawrence and Virginia Heuser. Their gowns were of red peau de soie with fitted bodices and bouffant skirts. They carried white fur muffs centered with fern and a white orchid.

The best man was Charles Foley and ushers were Thomas Wilson, William Eshank, Stanford Evans, James Moore and Peter Levette.

The bride's mother wore a gown of gold brocade and the mother of the groom was dressed in Italian silk. The reception was held in Fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony.

THE COUPLE left for a honeymoon in Nassau and upon their return will reside in Royal Oak.

FASCINATING FACTS ABOUT NATURAL GAS

Old As the Earth

Natural GAS came into being millions of years ago. Ancient peoples thought it to be the gift of the great God of Fire and temples were erected for the thousands of fire worshippers. The Chinese people—inventive and practical—piped the GAS and used it to dry salt from brine.

Modern As Tomorrow

After many years of perseverance and the expenditure of millions and millions of dollars, Natural GAS is today pumped out of the ground and through thousands of miles of pipelines to communities all over America. Natural GAS is now a major contributor to the fuel needs of the nation.
