Hickory Heights Names Holiday Decor Winners

NORTH ADAMS—Hickory Heights season—with displays throughout the area. With the merry holiday season came the subdivision's annual Christmas outside Lighting contest. Mrs. Phyllis Brunke and James Balmer, the judges, found the task of choosing winners a difficult one.

First prize winners were the Sherman McDermids of 918 Hickory Heights drive, second place went to the Thomas S. Nicholsons of 4314 W. Orchard Hill drive, and third place to the Donald J. Rogers of 3932 Far Hill drive. The three winners were presented with checks by the Hickory Heights president and vice president, Fred Wilson and Harold Cooper.

Honorable mention went to the William Baglys of 4103 Spur Hill drive and to 10-year-old Darby Armstrong, who did the decorating of her parents home, the William Armstrongs of 1224 Orchard Hill drive.

Special mention went to the Dr. John Fasting home on Orchard Hill drive for their gaily decorated childrens tree house. The most decorated street went to Spur Hill drive.

Friends in the Pine Hill subdivision gathered at the home of Mrs. Morgan on Pine Hill drive for a New Years eve party, dance and game fest.

Arriving with their favorite tan coloring dish under their arm were the Frank Watts, the Gordon McGowens, the Robert Brandons, the Jack Yoders, the Robert Livesays, the Earl Rothbachers.

It's been a busy holiday season for the Robert Livesays of Pine Hill drive this year. On the Sunday before Christmas they entertained at a tree trimming party in their home inviting the George Hammonds of Oak Park and Jodie Pimel of Southfield.

On Christmas Eve day the Livesays arrived at Central, Mich. to visit grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Livesay, through the Christmas week-end. They had just enough time between trains in Chicago to call the Robert Stacey's former Pine Hill subdivision residents.

On their return last Tuesday Mrs. Livesay joined her mother, Mrs. Herbert Gardner of Aspen road, Birmingham, in entertaining friends at a music and punch party at the Gardner residence.

The Robert Brandons of Pine Hill drive attended the family party at the Gross Pointe home of Mrs. Brandons parents, the A. W. Crabbs, an evening during the holidays. Other guests were relatives, Colonel and Mrs. Robert Moffatt and children, Jim and Judy, of Falls Church, Va.

The William Hooks and daughter, Tamara, of Juniper court, entertained the Harold Reasoners and daughter, Calla, of Birmingham, at dinner an evening last week. Tamara was home from Michigan State for the holidays and Calla Reason-

Mark Time for March of Dimes

SOUTHFIELD—Symbolic of communities throughout Oakland county, Southfield's mayor, Donald L. Swanson, 24068 Pennsylvania, (left) accepts a new March of Dimes proclamation from Mrs. Harry Gordon, 22992 Nancy, Southfield area chairman and also vice-chairman of Oakland county chapter's board of directors for the national foundation. Looking on at right is the Rev. G. Burton Hodgson, 2488 Derby, Birmingham, chapter chairman. The proclamation heralds the start of a month-long campaign in January throughout the nation and is dedicated to help fight the ravages of arthritis, birth defects and polio.

Lathrup Girl Wins Top Student Singer Award for Year

LATHRUP—Nancy Hamill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamill of Lathrup, was the recipient of the top award offered by the National Association of Teachers of Singing of America at the annual convention held recently in Cincinnati.

MISS HAMILL.

Osage Garden Club To Convene Jan. 11

NORTH ADAMS—Osage Garden club members will gather Jan. 11 at the Birmingham community house to hear the guest speaker, Mrs. Frank Chapman of Rochester, Mich. Her talk will be on "International Cooperation."

Mrs. Chapman will also tell of her experiences in Edinburgh, Scotland, where she recently attended the Triennial Conference of the Associated Country Women of the World, a WNFCA affiliate. Mrs. Chapman is an enthusiastic gardener and has held many offices in the WNFCA.

'Blazing Yule' Celebration Slated Saturday in Lathrup

LATHRUP—Lathrup's big Christmas tree bonfire is planned for 5 p.m. Saturday, according to City Administrator Jerald D. Stone. Residents may place their discarded trees along the city roads for pickup this week by the city DPW.

CAMBRIDGE—A farewell party for Mrs. William C. Gross of Spring River drive was planned by her neighbors, Mrs. Joseph H. Manning and Mrs. Donald Casson. Twenty neighborhood women met at the Spring River drive home of Mrs. Casson Tuesday at 9 p.m. for dessert and to present Mrs. Gross with a letter carrier and planter box to take along to her new home.

The family leaves Monday for Grand Rapids, where Gross will be manager of plant operations for a lithographing firm.

LATHRUP—News flash: Lathrup's newly-formed basketball team won their first game Monday against St. Michael's with a score of 48-17.

LATHRUP—Youngsters who enjoy skating can't skate over logs and bits of trash thrown on city ice rinks before the ice sets. How to handle the problem again faced council members Monday evening.

Three suggestions were made at the meeting. Ask parents to explain to youngsters that flooding the rinks costs the city a lot of money, and that a fall over one of the obstacles could cause a child to break an arm or leg. Ask the Lathrup Lions club for assistance in supervision or send out a plea for explorer scout aid. City Administrator Jerald Stone will follow through on suggestions for supervision and promises plenty of good skating with the coming cold weather.

LATHRUP—Mrs. Theodore Jamin and her two grandchildren, John and Martha Rice, all of 27915 Sunset, Lathrup, visited Sarasota jungle gardens during their recent vacation on the Sun Coast of Fla.

LATHRUP—Three-week-old Stephen Gerard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jastrzemski, was baptized at St. Bede's church on New Year's day. Born at New Grace hospital Dec. 12, Stephen has a sister Sylvia, 16; a brother Edward, 12 and two young sisters Sandra 8 and Suzanne 6. Sylvia acted as godmother for the baby.

SOUTHFIELD—Building construction in Southfield in 1959 totaled $17 million but fell short of the 1958 total of $20 million. Construction of homes made up approximately $10 million of the total; another $5 million represents commercial developments.
