

Franklin

BINGHAM FARMS — WOODCREEK FARMS
Nita Hard — MA 6-3224

Yuletide Stocking No. 7 Arrives in Nick of Time

FRANKLIN—Lost in the shuffle of holiday news was the very important arrival of child number seven born to Mr. and Mrs. Ward Thomas of Kirtland. Kurt Andrew superseded Santa Claus by making his appearance early Dec. 24. His ribs tacked his place in line with five older sisters and one not-so-much-older brother.

Greg and Marilyn Larkins hosted a lively evening for 30 high school friends at a party Dec. 23 at their N. Greenbriar home. Bright light of the evening was Santa Claus by making his appearance early Dec. 24. His ribs tacked his place in line with five older sisters and one not-so-much-older brother.

BINGHAM FARMS—Dave Cameron of Bingham Lane was host for a just-because party Saturday night for his sixth grade friends. Old timers will remember the Carmen Adams who once lived on 13 Mile road and now are in Birmingham. We remember them well but can't quite explain why their name should come to mind when we were writing up the Carson Bingham New Year's Eve party last week. At any rate, it WAS the Carmen Adams' (as we actually said) who had the Bingham road radio operator. The luncheon was also a good time to complete plans for the troop's winter campout at Narrin this coming weekend.

This Friday morning the Couples club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Ballinger on 13th and Franklin. The meeting will be a "white elephant" Christmas gifts. The proceeds will help pay expenses for future outings, with a mystery trip high on the list. Friday's snack will be kosher treat specialties.

The Franklin Community association is looking forward to a record attendance at the annual Presidents Ball, Jan. 16 at the Birmingham country club. Call Jack Steels or Adams Schube for tickets.

Franklin PTA Slates Series Of Speakers

FRANKLIN — Glen Michaels, supervisor of the Young People's Art Center at Cranbrook will speak on "Introducing Your Child to Creative Arts" before members of the Franklin PTA at 8 p.m. Jan. 11. The first of three programs on fine art. Michaels will show select works of his young students. Encouraging the use of many different media. Michaels also helps his pupils develop their own style of expression.

IN FEBRUARY the PTA will hear Marion Young, chief of the children's services for the Detroit Library, discuss "What is the Use of a Book." The annual book fair is also scheduled for this meeting.

"MUSIC AND the Growing Child" will be featured in March with assistant professor of the Wayne State university music department, Jason Tichon as guest speaker. The school glee club will sing.

DR. DWIGHT IRELAND will conclude the series in April by discussing the role of art, music and literature in schools. Refreshments for the January meeting will be provided by mothers of the two kindergarten classes with Mrs. Nicholas will show Mrs. John Eddy as room mothers and hostesses.

Seven in Heaven? Yeh, Man!

FRANKLIN—The beat generation? Sure Dad—glad to give out like music are the Epitons—local youth representing different schools find the beat a common denominator. Spreading joy—'n' all that jazz all through the cool yule were pianist-trombonist Bob Esterline, student at Lawrence Tech; drummer Rob Fortune and saxophonist Rog Mason of Fortunes high; Ralph

Southfield News Briefs

Set Jan. 19 Hearing For South-Oak Drain

SOUTHFIELD — A public hearing on the South-Oak (Eight Mile) drain project is scheduled at 10 a.m. Jan. 19 at the Evergreen pumping station, 2240 Eight mile road, Southfield. The meeting is slated to hear objections to the project or the petitions for the project submitted by Southfield and Oak Park, or to the manner of assessing costs to the affected corporations or any of their taxpayers.

S'field Master Plan Completion Date Set

SOUTHFIELD — Southfield's long-awaited master plan is scheduled for completion June 15. A timetable was given to the councilmen recently. According to A. E. Munson, city planning consultant, a proposed zoning ordinance will be ready by Feb. 1. Because about two-thirds of Southfield's 26 1/2 square miles is undeveloped, the councilmen are anxious to get a master plan for future development.

U of M Roommates Celebrate Birthday

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — While home for the holidays from U of M, Marilyn Bratton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bratton of Wooddale court, gave a surprise birthday party for her college roommates, Sandy Voss, of her 18th birthday. Guests were Barb Ballis, Pam Eastis, Ellen Schenken, Cookie Chappell, Ann Graham, Pat Lucas, Kathie Farrell, Pat Langley, Jean Caldwell, Debbie Hutchings, Linda Olson and Marcia Kempth.

Cemetery Auxiliary

FRANKLIN — Program plans will be secret for the Jan. 14 meeting of the Franklin cemetery auxiliary Mrs. Russell Pickering, 1741 Franklin road, will be the hostess for the pot luck luncheon beginning at 1 p.m. A business meeting will follow.

Franklin Band Wants Members

FRANKLIN — Looking for all the brass they can get, the newly organized Franklin Village Band under the leadership of Dr. Conrad Lam, Jack Skeels, Charles Hall and Bill Ellison are urging latent, budding and active musicians to join the ranks of the Franklin Community church Monday night at 8:30. Noted Bavarian pianist, Professor R. H. Bing has been invited as guest soloist. Born in Munich and a composer of note, Prof. Bing will share the spotlight with members of Dr. Lam's German band. This group is made up of staff members of Pontiac hospital who live in Birmingham and Bloomfield.

Bert Wood to Talk At WNWGA Meeting

FRANKLIN — Historian Bert Wood will be guest speaker for the Franklin WNWGA Jan. 11 meeting at the Franklin Community church. Starting at noon, dessert will be provided by the hostess committee Mrs. Paul Ziegelbauer, Mrs. Thomas Dudson, Mrs. Jack Becker, Mrs. L. J. Roberts and Mrs. Ernest Hoxington.

Combat Specialist

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. — Marine Pvt Kendall A. Madaras, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Madaras of 1356 Davis, Birmingham, completed four weeks of individual combat training Dec. 30 at the Marine Corps base here. The course included the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolition, field fortifications and advanced schooling on weapons.

Bloomfield South of Maple

Marian Patrick — MA 6-3029

Cranbrook-Maple Relatives Spend Season Visiting

CRANBROOK-MAPLE — Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Vigsteb, Jr. and family of Arlington Heights, Ill., spent the holiday season visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Busha of S. Williamsbury road, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vigsteb, Sr., in Bloomfield Village. The Vigsteb family formerly resided on Wellesly road before their recent move to Arlington Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boersma With Children, Beth, Kris and Nick, have returned to their home on Williamsbury road, following a visit with her mother, Mrs. T. M. Shynoweth in Upper Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richards of Bassett place, have just returned from a visit with his mother in Pittsburg.

Auld Bang Syne Time

WESTCHESTER — Sixteen couples sang out the old and rang in the New Year at the home of the Robert B. Fergusons of West Maple road.

Entertain Neighbors

BIRMINGHAM FARMS — Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoffman of White Pine drive entertained their neighbors Dec. 27 at a cocktail party. In the evening, the Hoffmans hosted a dinner party for high court officers of the Independent Order of Foresters.

Welcome New Year

BIRMINGHAM FARMS — Thirty couples gathered at the Ed. Zelnick home on White Pine drive, to say good bye to 1959 and welcome in the New Year. Guests included neighbors and friends from Dearborn.

B'field-Berkshire Announce Holiday Decor Winners

BERKSHIRES — Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Halm of 3950 Ann Rose court were first prize winners in the Bloomfield-Berkshire improvement association's Christmas lighting contest. A cleverly-decorated garage was the focal point of the Halm's well planned lighting contribution. Brilliantly lit tree frames secured to the side of the garage provided a background for the lighted stained glass window.

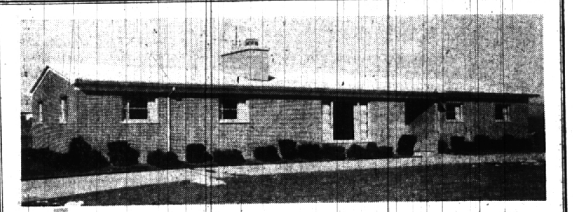

The Halm's were awarded two tickets to the spring dinner-dance and two bottles of champagne for their originality, unique design and well-planned display. A FLOOD LIGHTED scene, resembling a picture postcard won the second place award for Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Krueger, of 7200 Jackson Park drive. The judges, who found the task of selecting the winners difficult because of the many beautiful displays throughout the area, were Mrs. Henry J. Coteau and her son, Henry, of Greenwich drive, Mrs. L. W. Jacobs of Parkhurst drive and Mrs. L. L. Kortkamp of Old Mill road.

Westchester Bridge Group Meets Tonight

WESTCHESTER — The intermediate bridge group of the Westchester Women's club will meet at 8 p.m. tonight at the home of Mrs. Chester Sharp, 2645 Middlebury lane. The couples bowling group will follow their games at the Malady Lane alleys Jan. 9 with a buffet dinner at Greenfields.

Marilyn Ashlock left Monday to return to Lowell junior college in Ashburnham, Mass., after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ashlock, of Middlebury lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Hopkins of 4732 Pickering Road, who moved here recently from Wichita, Kan? The Hopkins have four sons, Tom, 12, who attends Birmingham junior high school and Jim, 10; John, 7 and Ricky, 5, who are all enrolled in Wing Lake school. The Hopkins with Tom and Jim are golf enthusiasts. Hopkins is national sales promotion manager with the Chevrolet division of General Motors.

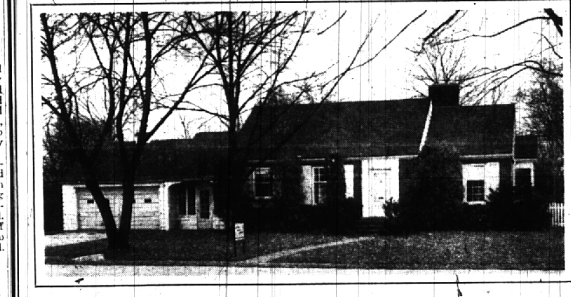

Executive Family Estate

This large beautifully landscaped homesite with Picturesque winding stream is the setting for this spacious Family home. Four large bedrooms, one with a fireplace. Are well served by two complete baths and two lavatories. The gracious living room is paneled with a natural Fireplace and picture window. Both the family room and Family kitchen have beamed ceiling and paneled walls. In addition there is a separate retreat house with fireplace and lavatory. Here is a lovely estate, comprising four Acres, at a realistic price.

Walsh, James & Wasey Co.

Realtors Since 1918
41 Years of Continuous Service in Birmingham
431 S. Woodward Ave. Birmingham
Midwest 4-6500
Detroit, JO 4-6033

SOLID VALUES for 1960

CHARMING BEVERLY RANCH—$23,900

This is a little gem on a two-lot site with lovely trees and shrubs. Living room with fireplace and bookshelves. Separate Dining room. 2 good-sized Bedrooms (one opens to a rear porch) Full Basement, tiled and paneled, with a fireplace. Knotty pine screened breezeway. Immediate Possession. At a price that can't be beat in this location!

BEVERLY COLONIAL

The butternut paneled Family room; the Dining room with dado and colonial wallpaper; excellent new carpeting and delightful decor throughout plus The fine site convenient to both public and parochial schools make this A perfect family home. And look at the price!

4 BEDROOMS FAMILY ROOM BASEMENT $31,500

ACRE PLUS SITE—$22,900

Because this home needs a little "fixing up", the price is so low. It wouldn't take much to make this a terrific home. Consider the large site close to the City but with Township taxes. Birmingham school district. Also there are 3 Bedrooms, a paneled Library, Living room with fireplace, Dining ell and hobby room. CALL US FOR AN APPOINTMENT

SNYDER & KINNEY & BENNETT INC. Realtors

239 So. Woodward Midwest 4-7000