Troy News Briefs

TROY—Louis Yanich, the Troy city commissioner who has been resigning from the group since Dec. 11, finally decided to quit trying to quit and stay with the commission.

Commission.
Yanich officially took his seat
Monday night with the absences listed as unexcused, according to Troy Clerk.

HE AGREED to resume his du-ties last week after waiting nearly a month for Troy commissioners to accept his resignation. He withdrew his resignation be-cause, he said, he didn't want to be disqualified for absences and because he thought "things would be better."

'PROY - John C. Crarnowski, capdidate for a Troy city commission onest, said that he will not resign his position on the city plan commission.
Plan - Commission Chairman
James Carvy, objects to the possible dual role. He thinks the two obos should he divorced, if Crarnowski goes alwad with his city commission conditatey.
