Girls to Receive DAR Citizen Awards

Emily Minor of Birmingham Seaholm high school and JoAnn Udell of Clawson high school have been selected by their respective schools to receive the DAR Good Citizens Pins, awarded in this area by Piety Hill chapter DAR.

Each year the students are asked to vote for three senior girls as candidates for this award. These three are then referred to the faculty, who choose the one girl they consider to be outstanding in all citizenship qualities.

EMILY MINOR

JOANN UDELL

EMILY is the daughter of city commissioner and Mrs. Lancelot Minor of Pleasant street, Birmingham. She plans on entering college next fall to train for elementary school teaching.

She is vice president of the Future Teachers club, captain of the cheer leaders and secretary of Cicero's club. She is a member of Aquabell's GAA bowling, ski club and is her home room representative at student congress.

SHE PARTICIPATED in "Buna" (student UN association), was in the variety show her junior and senior year, and is secretary of her home room. Last summer Emily was elected to Girls' State at University of Michigan, another outstanding honor.

JOANN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Udell of Lincoln, Clawson, also plans to be a teacher and will enter Central Michigan college in Mt. Pleasant next September. She was president of her Future Teachers club for two years, has been varsity cheer leader for two years.

SHE IS A member of the Peppers club and was corresponding secretary of GAA last year. JoAnn was the female lead in the senior play and was chosen one of the candidates for Queen of Christmas dance. She too, was elected to Girls' State in Ann Arbor last summer.

The girls and their mothers will be guests of honor at a DAR luncheon on Feb. 9, at which time Piety Hill chapter will present the pins.

conference on March 16, Emily and JoAnn will join the other Good Citizens and await the announcement of the state award winner.

MEANWHILE, the girls will submit a citizenship report to be judged along with 300 other winners throughout the state of Michigan. At the annual DAR state

Cancer Foundation Plans Contest

The Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Branch of the Michigan Cancer foundation met Wednesday at the home of the general branch chairman, Mrs. Ben D. Mills of Bloomfield Hills. Present were Mrs. Daniel W. La Rue, Mrs. Morgan Collins, Jr., Mrs. William J. Simpson, Mrs. J. B. Howard and Mrs. George H. Webb.

Plans were discussed concerning their part in the Art poster contest being sponsored by the Michigan Cancer foundation. The contest will be open to all 6th through 12th grade students.

THERE WILL BE three judgments, the first being planned for the first week in March here in the Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills area. The following week the branch winners will compete against 15 branches included in the South Oakland County Unit area.

The final judgments will be in Detroit during the first week of April with all Unit winners competing from Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties. After the completion of the contest, all entries will be placed on display in the communities in which the entries were made.
