Daughters Give Approval

Bernard Doetsch gets the approval of his daughters, Mary Ann (left) and Julie on his selection of colors for the decorations for the Gourmet Dinner which the Fathers' club will present Saturday evening at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, 1250 Kensington road, Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Doetsch is chairman of the arrangements committee.

Fathers' Club Schedules Gourmet Dinner Saturday

The Convent of the Sacred Heart in Bloomfield Hills, usually the setting for serious scholastic endeavor, will become a scene of festive gaiety when the Fathers' club presents its second annual Gourmet Dinner there from 6:30 to 8:30 Saturday evening.
 The general chairman for the dinner party is Richard D. Cleary, assisted by William F. Anhalt as co-chairman. Chairmen of the sub-committees are Bernard Doetsch,

JOSEPH RISDON, food procurement; William Oldani, hospitality; Joseph Vason, parking; Arthur Hagan, publicity; Paul Lorenz, seating and reservations and Frank Brady, ticket sales.
 Also active in the preparations are the Fathers' club officers: Robert Hedley, president; George Cheddle, first vice president; John Moran, second vice president; Amberg, treasurer; Arthur Bartley, corresponding secretary; and J. Emmet Judge, recording secretary.

AMONG THOSE who have placed early reservations are the Don E. Ahrens, the Frederick Colombos, the Morgan Collins, Jr., the A. J. Conniff, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Huber, the Paul Lorenz, the Bernard Powells, the Robert Ryan, the Charles Sanders.
 List continues with the John Sullivan, the Frank Swartzwouts, Jr., the Dawson Taylors, the Hanley Taylors, the Robert Taylors and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Utelving.

Play to Benefit State Hospital

Mrs. Olivia Thomas of the Birmingham child guidance clinic will be the guest speaker at the January Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae luncheon Jan. 25, 26, at Allan Birmingham, will open her home to the group, and she will be assisted by Mesdames W. E. Mosher, Jr., Joseph N. Schaeffer and M. Craig Miller, all of Birmingham.
 Plans will be discussed and advance tickets distributed for the St. Dunstan's Guild benefit performance of Noel Coward's play, "Nude With Violin".
 The Kappa alumnae are sponsoring the Feb. 18 performance, and the proceeds will benefit the Pontiac State hospital foundation for emotionally disturbed children.
 The chairman of this annual Kappa fund raising benefit is Mrs. Richard V. Anderson of Deep Wood, Bloomfield Hills, and her co-chairman from the Kappa evening group is Mrs. Adrian V. VonDerhaar of Dover road, Birmingham.
