Now and then, in one of these paragraphs, I suggest that every church-goer ought to be as generous in his free-will offering as he is toward—for example—his expenditures for things of much less value. This is not to say that the "widow's mite" is not a generous offering, for hers includes real sacrifice. But the average American today ought not to sting, miserly, in God's house.

More Snow—Higher Grades?

Last week was artificially shortened by the weather when schools were forced to close on Tuesday, Jan. 12.

The extra day of rest was generally welcomed, even as more time to prepare for the coming mid-semester exams. Of course, coming back was difficult.

Marian Hi Tea and Party Are Still in Committee

By CAROL JURICA

On Wednesday, Jan. 13, the student body met in the cafeteria at first hour, for a general assembly conducted by the student council.

A mother-daughter tea, and Marian's proposed party were discussed and committee chairmen were appointed for the two affairs.

All girls were urged to join at least one committee. The assembly then broke up into separate committee meetings.

All mothers and daughters of Marian high are invited to attend a tea at the school on Sunday, Jan. 31. Coffee, tea and cookies will be served, and the mothers will try to organize a much-needed mothers' club. The get-together will be held from 3 to 5 p.m.

We are happy to announce the results of the auditions held last week for girls interested in competing in the Glee Club Speech festival to be held in the near future.

Nine girls were chosen out of forty to compete against each other to find out who will represent Marian at the festival.

Here are the lucky girls: Lynne McKenna, Carol Jurica, Margaret O'Reilly, Karen Kastely, Jean Garrett, Sharon Sempowski, Carol Clema, Lois Jordan and Sue Stringer. As soon as the finals are held here at Marian, we will announce the representatives.

Monday, Jan. 18, was kick-off Friday at Marian girls. For this

Derby Junior high's bowling league will end with the semester, and a new one will begin. Derby students who are interested see Miss Jeanne.

The results of this year are—The Cobras and the Benders on the boys' league are tied for first place, and the Frantic Ones and the Gladiators are tied for first place in the girls' league. The high games for the season are 178 by Dawn Martin and 192 by Tom Pisaneschi.

Because of the bad weather on Tuesday, the fourth league debate, to be held at BHHS on that day, was postponed. The new date is Tuesday, Feb. 2, still at BHHS.
