ert Kauas' brownie troop 938. Mrs. James Steele's troop 318 found favorable ice skating conditions at Camp Narrin over the Jan. 8 weekend.

MRS. WILLARD CHAPOTON of Franklin and Mrs. John Mahabedian accompanied the troop and joined in the taffy pull, charades and other games. The troop will spend the next few weeks on first aid badge work with Mrs. William Yogus lending her assistance.

Little brownie fingers in Mrs. Kauas' troop 938 will be at work on party dolls for bookmarkers; they will be tying knots on baby blankets for the Junior Needlework Guild and they will explore a new world of apple and potato peeling.

DAD'S OF BROWNIES in troop 375 were recipients of attractive waste paper basket gifts made with potato chip cans, rolled magazine pages, shells and tape. Members of Mrs. Edwin Granh's troop 753 in a beaver like burst of activity, are completing their badge requirements to be ready for the court of awards ceremony Feb. 2 at Walnut Lake school. Badge work will be an exhibit for the parents and guests at the ceremony.

FEBRUARY 12 is the date for Mrs. Claybourne McClellan's troop 973 first camping experience at Camp Narrin.

A birthday party was given Jan. 13 Jackie Jaynes by her brownie troop members. Mrs. Fred Eoy leader, was mother by proxy for hospitalized Mrs. Jaynes.

Mrs. James Roberts, neighborhood chairman and leader of senior troop 369, now has an assistant, Mrs. Grover Dural from the Bloomfield Lakes area.

B'field Farms Family Returns from Trip To West Coast

To make the family reunion complete (for the first time in 16 years) was the arrival of her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Melin, who troop comprised of girls coming from a wide area in the Birmingham district including one foreign student from the Philippines, Gloria Madonia.

Members of troop 325 and their leaders, Mrs. Mitchell Middleton and Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobson, are dividing time between ping-pong, scanning maps and raising funds for a trip they will make to some part of the country this summer.

The finalists in the ping-pong tournament, will compete with Franklin winners.

The girl scout cookie sale will be Feb. 4-15. Mrs. Arthur Skelton, cookie sale chairman, can be contacted at 2076 Deering road. Proceeds from the sale support the camping program.

Her talk will include exciting and dramatic uses of driftwood arrangements with fresh and dried greens. She will also suggest unusual centerpieces for entertaining.

Mrs. Denton Harwell and Mrs. Robert Linker will assist the hostess.

A screen print covered yearbook designed and executed by Mrs. John H. Bryant and Mrs. George Fulkerson, has won for the club third prize in the mimeo division of the first annual yearbook awards.

The civic improvement committee of the garden club is working on a project "Trees for Westchester" with information on the project to be released later.

Guests are welcome at garden club meetings.

The membership is still open and women interested in becoming members should contact the club president, Mrs. Harold Twyman, 3184 East Bradford drive.
