Ralph Skinners Return From South America

NORTH ADAMS—The Ralph Skinners, Jr., and eight-year-old daughter, Mimi, of Paddington are finding it hard to get back in the swing of every day living after their five-week South American cruise.

They boarded the S.S. Brazil in New York and spent 33 days on the ocean. They stopped in the ports of Buenos Aires, Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo, Santos, Bahia, Trinidad, Martinique, San Juan, where they made tours from one to three days. Each port had Christmas decorations and lighted trees throughout the exotic native plants and flowers.

There were many parties, movies, slides of the approaching ports and entertainment on board ship. One of the party highlights was the demonstration put on as the ship crossed the Equator. Mrs. Skinner, for one, was covered with spaghetti and raw eggs and then sprayed off with a fire hose before earning her Equator Certificate. Mimi found the trip exciting and recorded her impressions daily for classmates.

The Robert McNaughtons of Big Beaver road recently spent ten days at Fort Lauderdale, Fla. They enjoyed golf, swimming, sunning and attending the race tracks. One of their deep sea fishing trips they were started by a hungry 10-foot hammerhead shark that tried to attack a kingfish being hauled into the boat.

When they returned McNaughton received a promotion and transfer to Chicago by his firm, American Photo Corp. The family will join him soon in the windy city.

The William Carys of Square Lake road and their three Labrador will be joining other North ate bridge. Attending will be the Vincent McCabes, the Jack Suttons, the Robert Halsteads of Birmingham, the Wayne Lindvors of Bloomfield and the Ray Bakers of Detroit.

The Fredrick Officers are hosting a bridge party Saturday in their Hickory Heights drive home. Friends planning to attend are the William H. Moshers, the Ralph Masons, the Sidney B. Harrimans, the Louis Bausers of Bloomfield Hills and the Charles Limebergers of Dearborn.

A Sacred Heart luncheon and card party will be held at 12:30 p.m. Feb. 5 at the Sacred Heart hall on Adams road. The proceeds will go toward the building fund. Ticket chairman for the event is Mrs. Paul Deroche of Bretzy drive. Other chairmen from Charnwood are Mrs. Ray Kreucher of Chalgrove road and Mrs. Randall Millvany of Tutbury drive.

Friends gathered Saturday at the Anslow lane drive home of the Emerson Wolunges for an evening of movies. The movies shown were of Wolunges recent business trip to Mexico and of the Earl Ashes honeymoon trip to Jamaica last year. Viewing the film were the Chester Burrells of Melvern drive and the John Griesons of Pontiac. The Earl Ashes are newcomers to Dalesford road.

A group of Charnwood residents were luncheon guests of Mrs. Budd Eichers of Hickory Heights the Ralph Dubois of Birmingham and the James Campbells of Franklin.

The William Carys of Square Lake road were dinner guests Saturday of the Ralph Dubois who just returned from a trip to California and moved into their new home in Bloomfield Village.

The Navahoe and Shawnee tribes of the North Adams area were among the tribes taking part Jan. 17 in the annual Indian parade skit at Eton park.

The Baylor Suttons hosted a dinner and poker party Saturday in their Pine Hill drive home. The party was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hendrickson of Fox Run drive who are transferred to Buffalo, N.Y., and will be moving this week.

The party guests were the Lyman Bryans, the Herman Coremans, the Sherman McDonalds and the Lawrence Hufstetters, all of Hickory Heights.

Guests will be gathering Saturday at the Clifford Mezey home on Oakhill drive for dinner and dupli-

Glad It Wasn't My Property

That probably was your relieved thought after the recent fire in your neighborhood. But suppose it HAD been your property. Would you have had enough Fire Insurance to replace ALL of your property?
