Hogan-Bring Repeat Vows In Garden at Botsford Inn

Alice Fredricka Hogan and Robert LeRoy Bring were united in marriage Saturday afternoon in the garden at Botsford Inn. Dr. Harry O. Martin performed the 3 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. James Joseph Hogan of Westwood drive, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frederick Bring of Des Moines, Iowa.

THE BRIDE presented a graceful picture in her gown of blossom white mousseline de soie blended with alencon lace. Tiny pearls frosted the lovely lace which formed the rose shaped medallion down the front of the empress bodice which was styled with a deeply curved portrait decolletee and brief sleeves.

A princess cap of jewelled lace caught her tiered veil of fine illusion and she carried a cascade of lily of the valley and ivy.

MRS. DALY Lawrence Macgrayne served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Joan Thoma and Jane Collier. Honor attendant appeared in a white silk organza frock with a draped bodice and belted skirt. Bridesmaids wore white chiffon sheath styled dresses with satin cummerbunds. They carried cascades of delphinium.

The bride's brother, James Alfred Hogan, stood as best man. Seating the guests were Thomas Bring and Daly Mcgrayne.

NEWLYWEDS are honeymooning at Portage Lake in Okemaw, Mich. Alice is a graduate of State university of Iowa and was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority. Her husband is a graduate of State university of Iowa and was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity.

GUTHRIE McCLINTIC

To Teach, Direct At Will-O-Way

Guthrie McClintic, famous director-producer and husband of Kath. ezine Cornell, will be the "master" who will critique (teach and direct) the final student performances during the summer term at the Will-O-Way Apprentice theatre. Late registrations are now being accepted for the summer term which ends August 14.

Summer course offers all phases of dramatic training for University students, adults, teenagers and children. The course will include acting and directing workshops with stress on characterization through oral interpretation and dialects.

McCLINTIC, famed for his great work in the theatre both here and abroad, was born 67 years ago in Seattle, Wash. He was educated at the University of Washington and at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts.

He began his rise to fame with Grace Foyce at the Playhouse in New York in 1915-16. Here, he appeared in "The New Idea" as Norman, "The Lines" as George Neenan, "Major Bab Barbara" as Morrison and many others.

A Vacation on Dividends . . .

Many people put a little aside for a vacation each payday. And wouldn't it be nice to add to that nest egg, through dividends, while you're waiting for that next vacation time to roll around.

And let's not forget that complete vacation we're all looking forward to, called retirement. It's wise to review your portfolio now to anticipate your retirement needs. With proper planning, it could be like being on a payroll yet not working every day.

We at Manley, Bennett have complete information on the many industries that never take a vacation . . . but make it easier for you to do so through dividends. Stop in at either of our offices for complete consultation. Perhaps we can help you plan now for "A Vacation on Dividends".
