

when you ask him of net for advice on a perplexing problem. It may be that the one to ask is not at the moment (may never have been) very friendly to you—perhaps for no good reason at all. Yet by asking for helpful advice this other person may be flattered sufficiently (not exactly vainly altogether, either) to become your lasting friend.

B'field Village Students In Europe for Summer

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE — The Stanley J. Gillens of Chewton Cross road have received their first letter from their daughter, Mary, who left for Holland last week.

Mary and Bill Purdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Purdy of Bloomfield Village, are with the Youth for Understanding group sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches. Mary will spend two months with a family in north Holland and Bill will live with a family in Germany. According to Mary's letter Bill played his guitar and kept the group singing all the way over the ocean. Upon arriving in Amsterdam Bill was instantly the center of attraction when he was surrounded by small boys who wanted to feel his crew cut. This was quite a curiosity in Holland where all the men and boys have long hair. The Gillens' other daughter, Elizabeth, who is a student at Mills College for Women in Oakland, Calif. and is attending summer school in Ann Arbor.

Maturing to Wisconsin for the holiday weekend were the John Drummonds of North Cranbrook road. They traveled to Oshkosh for a family reunion stopping first at the airport in Milwaukee to meet Drummond's parents who arrived from Lakeland, Fla.

The holiday weekend was reunion time for the Philip Copelands of Ardmore drive. They entertained three families who met 15 years ago when they all lived on the same street in Detroit. The reunion has become an annual event for the Copelands and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cary, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Ellis and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Longyear and all their children who total 16.

Westwood 'Old Glories' She's Engaged To J. J. Conlon

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—WESTWOOD—Every home in Westwood Manor displayed a new American flag on the Fourth of July and every flag had 50 stars.

All this came about as a result of the Westwood Manor WNFCA project. When they decided to sell 50-star flags, they enlisted the help of the children in the subdivision and found they were better salesmen than grown-ups—and the girls sold more than the boys.

Flags are still available through the Westwood Manor garden club. Anyone interested may call Mrs. Ralph Healer.

CHELMSLEIGH — That new swimming pool at the Homer Finch home on Oakleigh is the center of attraction for all their friends who stopped by all weekend to cool off with a dip.

Monday morning everyone in the Phil French family came for swimming and lunch and later on the Bud Aimers stopped by and stayed to swim and eat.
