

Newlyweds Honeymooning In Northern Michigan

Gowned in silk mist taffeta, Jane Lee McDaniel became the bride of John Horatio Keller Saturday afternoon at First Presbyterian church. The Rev. W. Glen Harris performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 225 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephen McDaniel of Glangary circle, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio S. Keller of Cranford, N. J.

THE BRIDE'S gown featured an empire bodice covered with imported chantilly lace, short sleeves, crescent-shaped appliques of lace encircling the full skirt and chapel train. The fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a Swedish crown of chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls. Her flowers were Eucharist lilies and stephanotis.

HONOR attendant was Mrs. Richard T. Hill Jr., and bridesmaids were Betty Miligan, Mrs. Donald J. Morgan, Mrs. Robert Isaacson and Mrs. Philip Jacobus.

Attendants were dressed alike in white eyelet organdy over taffeta fashioned with a bell-shaped skirt, scoop neckline and cap sleeves. The bride had an empire effect with aqua satin waistband and back panels.

They wore headbands of matching satin flower petals and circular veils. They carried cascade arrangements of pink sweetheart roses and ivy.

THE BRIDE'S mother chose a sheath gown of mist green chiffon and lace with a small hat in matching shade. Her flowers were small white orchids.

The groom's mother selected a sheath gown of ice blue Italian silk and her flowers were orchids. Jack Peterson stood as best man and ushers were Thomas McDaniel, Donald J. Morgan, Richard Bowman, Frank W. Burr and Roger Markhus.

THE BRIDE'S traveling costume was a beige silk linen sheath with matching accessories. They chose northern Michigan as their wedding trip. The young couple will live in Birmingham.
