Mayor Launches Station's Grand Opening

Mayor Florence Willett snipped the ribbon to open Birmingham's largest Standard gasoline station located on Hunter boulevard between Chestnut and Forest. Assisting are (from left) proprietor Steve Kuzynski and Martin E. Citrin. The Citrins are Citron Oil company distributors who will supply the station. The grand opening, scheduled for July 15, 16 and 17, will feature the appearance of Ricky the clown, well known Detroit television personality who will be on hand to present autographed photos to all children, as well as to perform with his live lima. The celebration will also include free gifts, refreshments and balloons. Hunter Standard Service is open 24 hours and features S & H green stamps and free pick up and delivery service.

Bell Appoints King Director

Edward L. King, 3828 Top View court, Birmingham, has been named teletypewriter exchange (TWX) mechanization director of the Michigan Bell Telephone company. King will direct the company's activities associated with the Bell system's program for mechanizing TWX station service, which is scheduled for nationwide operations on Labor Day weekend of 1962.
