Patricia Newhall and George S. Morgan in a scene from La Ronde, Arthur Schnitzler's comedy classic, at the Theatre Marquee, New York City. Former Cranbrook summer theatre school student Pat, who is both co-producer and director of the play, recently entered its cast, winning added laurels for her portrayal of the lead role.

Former Cranbrook Student Has Lead Role in New York

Michigan's celebrated triple-threat actress, Patricia Newhall, who has just taken over the lead in the New York Marquee production of La Ronde is a former resident of Birmingham.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Newhall of Arlington road, Pat first attended then directed in the Cranbrook summer theatre school and has worked for five years in Cranbrook's Erzsébet club under the direction of Carl G. Wonnberger.

PAT SPENT her college years at UCLA and at Michigan, majoring in political science, philosophy and ethics. Besides, Pat was a scriptress of sufficient merit to attract the attention of Carl Milled, a rider and field hockey player of unusual ability.

However, she turned to her first love, the stage where she quickly found her greatest interest in producing classical drama. Already to her credit are New York productions of an Irish trilogy by J. M. Synge, Sartre's No Exit, Garcia Lorca's Blood Wedding and now La Ronde.

PATRICIA is a graduate of Kingswood. Present plans call for her to return to teach at Cranbrook as soon as her summer acting and producing schedule will permit.

Carol Ruth Donaldson Weds Earnest Reschke

St. Bede's Catholic church was the scene Saturday for the marriage of Carol Ruth Donaldson to Ernest Conway Reschke. The Rev. Cyril J. Keating performed the double ring ceremony at 10 o'clock in the presence of 300 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. James Francis Donaldson of Marshall street, Southfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Reschke of Lake Orion.

FOR HER wedding day, Carol chose a crystal and lace gown designed with a fitted bodice, sabrina neckline and a cathedral side sash trimmed with appliqued alien con lace and seed pearls. A head-dress of seed pearls secured her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses.

The bride's sister, Ruth Ann Donaldson, served as honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Elaine Donaldson, "Corky" Kalocay and Mrs. Charles Barnes.

THEIR GOWNS were designed with sleeveless white silk faille bodices with pale yellow cristallite bell-shaped skirts and cummerbunds. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow carnations.

Best man was Roy Reschke and assisting the guests were Joseph Sorendino, Walter DeBusche Jr., James F. Donaldson Jr., and John D. Reschke.

Mother of the bride wore a mint green silk sheath with matching coat and a pink orchid corsage. Mrs. Reschke chose a mint green and blue silk sheath with matching accessories and pink orchid corsage.

THE WEDDING breakfast immediately following the ceremony was at Topinka's Country House for the wedding party and immediate families. Evening reception was at the VPW hall in Berkley.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Reschke chose a mint green and white plaid cotton suit with white accessories. The newlyweds are honeymooning in northern Michigan.

LONDONDERRY
 100% ALL WOOL

Good looks. Good wear. Good price. These are the down-to-earth wools unique to Londonderry (thanks to Bigelow's new high-bulk yarn!) This 3-ply, permanently mothproof wool is fluffed up, much like high-bulk sweater yarn, but sturdier. It gives a much deeper, denser pile than ever before possible at the price, plus, all the extra long wear you'd expect! It's luxurious, yes, but this luxury's the real McCoy! See Londonderry today if you want your carpet dollar's full worth!
