THE BRIDE appeared in a white, traditional, chantilly lace and tulle gown designed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins at the sabrina neckline and long tapering sleeves. Alternate lace and tulle ruffles formed a panel in the back.
 A tiara of sequins and seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a white prayer book with white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

MRS. PHILIP DORAN served as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Kozak and Susan Ruth Lesby. Flower girl was Mary Margaret Pierce and maid of honor was Pamela Janet Pierce.
 Attendants appeared in orchid nylon organza gowns over silk taffeta featuring sabrina necklines, short sleeves and fitted bodices. They wore matching hats of tulle with velvet bow and double streamers falling in the back. They carried pink cascades of camellias.

FLOWER GIRL wore an orchid nylon organza over taffeta featuring a peter pan collar and puff sleeves.
 Kenneth Tykka stood as best man and ushers were James Lesnak, Ronald Polka and Thomas Kozak. Mother of the bride chose a chocolate chantilly lace over pink taffeta with pink accessories. She had a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Quilici selected a beige lace sheath over baby blue taffeta with a face jacket and small satin bows in front of the dress. Her accessories were blue.

THE NEW Mrs. Quilici chose an ensemble of yellow raw silk fitted sheath with white accessories for her wedding trip to Southern Wisconsin and Milwaukee. They will reside in Kalamazoo.

MRS. MELVILLE ROBB, JR.

Attendants Wear Dotted Swiss Gowns

Caroline Hendren and Melville Bruce Robb, Jr. were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Dr. Richard M. Trelease performed the 4:30 o'clock ceremony.
 The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey Hendren, Jr., of Kansas City, Mo. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Robb of Lake Quivira, formerly of Birmingham.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight satin fashioned with a portrait neckline edged in heirloom duchesse lace, long tapering sleeves and a slim fitted basque bodice.
 Her fingertip-length veil of imported tulle cascaded from a French bonnet of heirloom Limerick lace. She carried a white satin prayer book centered with stephanotis.
 Matron of honor was Mrs. Glen Meredith, sister of the bridegroom. Junior bridesmaids were Sandra McLeon, Hendren and Lucy Volk Lombardi.

THEY WORE ballerina length gowns of Nile green and white imported dotted-swiss styled with scoop necklines, short sleeves, slim fitted bodice which was trimmed at the waist with a petal white ribbon sash and a bouffant skirt. They carried colonial bouquets of Marguerite daisies and ivy.
 Attending the groom were Robert B. Grindley, Glen Meredith, Robert Warner, Leonard Lombardi and Dr. Hardy Hendren III.
