

The Birmingham Eccentric

SECTION
D

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday July 14, 1960

Though you may be spending most of your life among many people, even live in a great big city that teems with human beings, most of the time you are alone—and by this I mean that you are conscious only of your own thoughts, meditations, longings, desires and urgings. Is this not sufficient reason for you to fill your mind with the happiest, most optimistic, self-encouraging thoughts possible?

Residents of Wing Lake Vacation In Puerto Rico

BLOOMFIELD NORTH — WING LAKE — Mr. and Mrs. James Grissom of Carey and Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Milburn of Westwood court have just returned after a vacation in Puerto Rico.

They motored to New York then sailed to Puerto Rico on a freighter. During the 10 days there, they flew to St. Thomas for several days then returned by freighter.

LONE PINE HILLS — Mrs. Edward H. Chudik of Lone Pine road recently entertained 15 members of Lone Pine Hills ladies bridge group. The couples bridge group of Lone Pine Hills will meet July 15 for dessert and bridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. McDonald on Craigin drive.

FOXGROFT — Returning last week after a vacation in the east were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stanford and their sons, Ricky and Tom of Woodland Pass.

Their first stop was Washington, D. C. where they spent a week sight-seeing. Then they took an apartment in Ocean City, Maryland and enjoyed a week of sun and sea. Returning home they stopped in Jamestown, Yorktown and Williamsburg.

DEVON HILLS — Leaving tomorrow to spend a week at Top-in-a-Bee are Mr. and Mrs. G. Wynn of South Pemberton. Mrs. Wynn's sister, Mrs. Philip F. Hoops, arrived today from Chicago to visit

Alice Burlingame Feted at Luncheon

GILBERT LAKE — Alice Wessels Burlingame (Mrs. William H.) was the guest of honor Thursday at a bon voyage luncheon and bridge party at the home of Mrs. Sydney B. Harriman of Tall Oaks drive.

The Burlingames will leave for Europe in a few weeks. Life preservers with each guest's picture in the center were fastened to tiny blue boats which marked places for the 16 guests at the luncheon table.

Using a replica of a large ship as a centerpiece, Mrs. Harriman placed two miniature deck chairs in the ship and on each chair she placed a picture of the Burlingames.

The Farno Greens of Blandford road are home again after traveling about the country. Mr. and Mrs. Green went to Chicago first where Green presented a paper at the American Nuclear society.

Arriving home, they picked up their two sons and drove to Mississippi to visit Mrs. Green's family. They returned home through Memphis, Tenn., where they stopped to visit Green's mother.

Everyone in Glencoe Estates enjoyed the Fourth of July fireworks at the home of the Gerald Diehls on Blandford road. The Diehls made a real party out of the occasion serving pop for the little kids and coffee for the "big kids."

Visitors have arrived to spend the summer with the Joseph B. Commons of South Millway. Commons' parents, the Joseph W. Commons, arrived from Venice, Fla., in time to spend the holiday weekend with their son and his family at their cottage on Saginaw Bay.

The senior Commons stayed on at the cottage and will return to be with the Commons until mid-August.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Schmidt of Windingwood drive returned last week from a vacation in the
