Maplebrook WNFGA
Digs Its New Project

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH—CRANBROOK-MAPLE — Give gardeners a bit of ground, some seeds and plants and willing workers, the result is an element of charm and beauty that can even be added to a busy shopping center.

Beautifully the southwest corner of Maple and Cranbrook is the current project of the Maplebrook WNFGA under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Lane, civic improvement chairman, and with the cooperation of the owner, Philip Kopman, who did the landscaping.

A flower bed provided for use of the club and was designed and planted under the direction of Mrs. W. H. St. Clair, horticulture chairman, with the assistance of Mrs. Lane, Mrs. F. A. Wycialek and Mrs. Charles Richards.

FRANKLIN WOODS — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Copeland returned recently from a delightful week in Jamaica.

The Coplands were among the hosts and hostesses at the week's outing for sales managers of Pontiac dealers.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE — There were prizes for the best costume, most original costume, best decorated vehicle, friendliest boy and friendliest girl. And to keep all of the youngsters happy there was a gift for each child along with ice cream, chocolate milk and candy.

Chuck, Phil, Roger and Patty Nelson floated along in full sail in their decorated wagon.

Tom and Bob Semmon had their vehicle decorated to represent an artist's studio, complete with a posing model and black mustached artist.

White gloves and blackened faces transformed Dale and Hardy Schultz into realistic minstrels.

Flipping a pancake in a frying pan could prove rather complicated, especially while on the march, but Martha Weaver accomplished the feat in her impersonation of Aunt Jemima.

Among the other prize winners were Mike Fisher, Susy Tuckfield, Coby Benyes, Timmy Carnell, Christine Vass, Sharon Ostrow, and Mrs. Charles Dexter and son Ron were Fourth of July visitors at the Richard Knudsen's Teynham place home.

Current visitors are Mrs. Knudsen's mother Mrs. Van Horn and her niece, Laura O'Connell of Antioch, Ill.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kurzman and daughter Gail of S. Cranbrook Crossroad spent a week in New York City recently. They attended several plays while in the big city.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE — Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kriger of S. Cranbrook Crossroad with their three sons Jeff, Jack and Harry, have just returned from a two-week vacation in Maine.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE — Another in a series of card parties sponsored July 8 by the Maplebrook WNFGA was hosted by Mrs. Kenneth Buhna at her home on S. Willamby road.

FRANKLIN WOODS — Harold Dillow with sons David and Bob will leave July 19 for the boy scout jamboree at Colorado Springs.

This is the second Jamboree for David, an explorer scout. He will be going as a senior patrol leader.

A thoroughly excited boy is 13-year-old Bob who will be attending his first Jamboree. Dillow will assume the duties of Jamboree troop assistant scout master. In preparation for the big event, Dillow and the boys spent last week end at the scout camp in Howell.

CRANBROOK-MAPLE — Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson of Teynham Place were in Chicago for the July 17 weekend where they attended a wedding and high school graduation.

Mrs. Nelson's mother, Mrs. C. Barendt of Chicago returned with them for a two-week visit.
