Recreation Round-Up

664 Purdy was voted in as a new member. A Happy Birthday song for Harry Stark was led by Charles Baker.

A committee consisting of Earl Roy, Henry Wagner, and Herbert Fleming was elected to make arrangements for the Club's Fourth Annual Picnic at Call Lake July 29. The Club was entertained by the Bethlehem Steel company's color films showing the construction of the four mile long steel spans across Chesapeake Bay, one of the longest steel bridges in the world. The second film entitled "Red Letter Day's" showing hunting scenes in Maine and Florida was interesting.

The discussion group held its last session until September. If you want to know "What Happens to Your Property When You Die," members and friends should be on hand tomorrow, July 15, to hear David Breck, a prominent attorney well versed on this subject. He will open the meeting to questions with answers.

After the talk and lunch, cards and shuffle board will be in order. The players had better be good because they are meeting the Bushnell S.M.C. teams who will visit Birmingham, on Monday, July 25, a few of the talented entertainers in the club will visit the Oakland County hospital. On August 5 the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Ewald E. Schaffer on Commercial Lake. On August 12 the club will visit G. M. Technical Center. On August 19 the club will be at the home of Mrs. Fred C. Gould.

Bass Run Attracts Pine Lake Anglers

Night fishermen have been cleaning up at Bass Run this past week at Pine Lake. Robert S. Gell, 6707 Woodbank, Birmingham, had a nice catch of five weighing better than a pound apiece at Shorty Hook's boat livery on Orchard Lake road.

Some anglers have been pulling out three and four pounders. Worms on a crawler harness seem to do the trick.

Trout is paying off too. A 42 inch 7.5 pound pike was hauled out two weeks ago. Trouters say it's nothing to catch 200 pan fish in an afternoon.

Springdale to Hold Senior Golf Tourney

The Springdale golf club will instead of taking Caroline to Paris, nament Wednesday, July 20. The contest will be open to all Birmingham senior men 55 and over.

A trophy for low gross and other prizes will be awarded. Two off time is 12:30. Entry fees of $1 are being accepted at the Springdale club house.

Dad-Lad Golf Opens

The fifth annual father and son Red Run golf tournament will be held Friday, July 15. A barbecue in the evening will climax the golf event.
