

A great deal of one's thoughts and actions during his life are best fortified through performance—in other words, through experience. Intelligent persons, though they be filled with book learning, are wise in tackling a new project, of sizeable proportions, if they first seek to learn the experiences of others who may have gone through such a project. That's why "experience is a dear teacher."

Hills Branch Plans Fall Country Fair

Members of the Bloomfield Hills branch of the Woman's national farm and garden association voted at the July meeting at the home of Mrs. Graham J. Graham to hold a Country Fair September 19 beginning at 11 a. m. at the Leslie H. Green estate on Turtle Lake.

Purpose of the fair is to raise money for the branch's scholarship fund. Members and guests of the Bloomfield Hills branch are invited to attend.

HEADING the fair as general chairman is Mrs. Edward S. Wellcock and her helpers are Mesdames Horace P. Shaw, Henry C. Johnson, Herbert W. Mason, Charles L. Chubbuck, Leslie H. Green, William L. Kahn.

Line continues with Mesdames William G. Ferguson, Lester Coleman, James Q. Goudie, William D. Singleton, Edgar B. Flint, E. Govan Hill, Robert C. Vanderkloot, E. E. Harmsworth, Earl Thompson and John Nagel.

Bride-Elect In a Whirl Of Showers

Susan Marie Brennen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. John Brennen of Yorkshire road, Birmingham, has been in a whirl of pre-wedding parties. She will become the bride of Poorman L. Mueller Jr., son of the senior Mueller of Hinsdale, Ill., on August 20.

A red and white kitchen shower was given in June by Mrs. Harmond Baker and her daughter Bettye of Beverly Hills. The entire party was carried out in the theme of red and white. The bride-elect was feted at a recent linen shower by Lynne Betts and a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Louis Anderson.

ON JULY 2, Mr. and Mrs. Poorman L. Mueller feted Susan at cocktail party to introduce her to 260 of their friends. The following day, the couple were honored at a buffet supper and swimming party by the Richard J. Bells of Hinsdale.

A barbecue and pantry shower will be given Aug. 14 by Mrs. Malcolm Jolliff, Mrs. Herman Goodsmith and Sally Goodsmith for the couple at the home of Mrs. Jolliff of Grosse Pointe.

THE BRIDE-ELECT'S sister, Mrs. D. J. Booth who will be her matron of honor, will have the spinster dinner at her home in Birmingham. The same evening, the brother of the bride, A. John Brennen, Jr., will host a bachelor dinner. The Brennens will arrive by jet from Seattle, Wash.

The evening before the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Mueller will host the rehearsal dinner at the Fox and Hounds. And on the day of the wedding Mrs. Gardner Allen of Birmingham will have an early dinner party for out-of-town guests and the wedding party.

She's Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Jarmak of Chicago, Ill., announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce, to Kenneth Wellington Sproule II, son of Dr. and Mrs. K. W. Sproule of Yorkshire road, Birmingham. They are both Juniors at Michigan State university. A Sept. 4 wedding is planned.

Dean-Purse Repeat Vows In Congregational Church

Community Congregational church was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Marilyn Richards Purse to William Clifford Dean. The Rev. Gentle performed the 8:30 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gilbert Purse of San Quentin, Lathrup Village, her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Howard Dean of Detroit.

THE BRIDE wore a floor length chantilly lace and nylon gown featuring a sabinra neckline and long tapering sleeves. An orange blossom crown secured her veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of asteranthis, ivy and butterfly orchids.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Ruth Dean and Fran Emerson. They wore white starched organza gowns with saturing scoop necklines, fitted bodice and full flare skirts. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

JAY SURKAT stood as best man and seating the guests were Jerry Kjos and John Gilbert. Ring-bearer was Jimmy Morrish and flower-girl was Susan Dean.

The bride's mother wore a pink embroidered organza gown with a deep purple orchid. Mrs. Dean chose a rose beige dress with an orchid.

The bride's traveling costume

MRS. WILLIAM C. DEAN was a two piece black suit with white accessories. The couple have chosen northern Michigan for their wedding trip. They will make their home in Utica.

Secretaries Leave For NSA Convention

Seven members of the South Oakland chapter of the national secretaries association departed Tuesday from Metropolitan Airport to attend the 15th annual NSA convention in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Members representing the South Oakland chapter will be Lenore Fort, past president, who will be the chapter's delegate; Louis Galgani, president-elect, who will be the alternate delegate. Five remaining members are Rita Tesson, Mildred Storch, Gladys Storch, Helen Gunn and Grace Erway.

Yule Mart Slated

A Christmas Mart, sponsored by the Detroit and Oakland county league for planned parenthood, is slated for Oct. 26 and 27 at the Veterans Memorial building, Mrs. Joseph Schlotman will serve as honorary chairman and co-chairmen will be Mesdames J. H. Carmel, J. L. Hudson Jr., Leonard Kaale and James Wineman.

affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. Her fiancé, a graduate of Michigan State university and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, will attend Wayne State university college of law in September.

No date has been set for the wedding.

A Full House on Shepardsbush Drive

The Birmingham home of the John G. Dinkeloos on Shepardsbush drive was a full one last week. Mrs. Dinkeloos's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett D. Sugarbaker of Jefferson City, Mo., arrived Friday to spend a week here. This was the first trip to Birmingham the Sugarbakers have made together. Looking pretty as a picture at a lawn party honoring the Sugarbakers are (from left, bottom row) Honne and Chris Dinkeloos, Stephen, Elizabeth and David John Sugarbaker; (middle row) Debbie, Connie Sugarbaker, Tessa and Dirk Dinkeloos; (third row) Geneva, Brena Sugarbaker, Janje Dinkeloos and Eva Sugarbaker; and (toprow) are Mrs. Dinkeloos and Mrs. Sugarbaker.

Smorgasbord To Benefit Democrats

Busy going through cookbooks for favorite recipes which will be concocted for a smorgasbord dinner Sunday afternoon are members of the Democratic Women's Federation, (from left) Mrs. Alvin S. Reapport of Middlebury lane, Mrs. Harold Schultz of Colonial Way, Bloomfield Hills; and Mrs. William Clemmons of S. Williamsbury, Bloomfield township. The dinner which will be held at the CAI building in Waterford from 2-6 p. m., is to raise funds for the Democratic county candidates.

Republicans Gather for Political Rally

Mrs. Dan O'Madigan, Jr. entertained in the garden of her home on Chesterfield road last Tuesday afternoon.

Receiving members and friends of the Bloomfield Hills Republican Women's club with Mrs. O'Madigan were Mrs. Don E. Ahrens of Haverhill road, Mrs. Verne C. Hampton of Brookside drive, and Mrs. Henry Woolfenden of Kennington road, all of Bloomfield Hills.

A red, white and blue theme was carried out and every accent was on patriotism from the clever Patrick Henry "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" table cloth, punch and centerpiece.

A SOUVENIR flag from the 1865 campaign of Col. J. C. Fremont, the first candidate of the Republican party, was loaned by Mrs. Irwin Millard of Barden road.

Guests were greeted with posters and signs to set the tempo for the political forum meeting. A large flag funneled from the tall flag pole was fitting and proper to guard the long table of candidates for the State Legislature.

ell, Stan Brown, Henry Hogan, Richard Kuhn, and Farrell Roberts.

There was nothing old-fashioned about this political meeting except the pitchers of iced water and the open air meeting.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

E. J. Baney Celebrates 80th Birthday

A resident of Birmingham for 55 years, Mr. E. J. Baney of 176 E. Frank, was honored Sunday on his 80th birthday. Twenty-six guests attended the family party at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. Henry Gebhardt of Beverly road, Beverly Hills. Also celebrating a birthday was Mr. Baney's grandson, James Cooper, who turned 15. The Baney's eight children are Mrs. Henry Gebhardt, R. E. Baney, Mrs. R. J. Mearin, Mrs. Henry Johns, R. F. Baney, Mrs. Robert E. Cooper, Mrs. J. M. Merritt and Virginia Bany. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Merritt, close friends of the Baney's, were also in attendance.

Here and Gone

Recently home for a short stay with their families were Dr. and Mrs. John F. Solverson of Newport, R. I. Dr. Solverson is the son of the Frederick F. Solversons of Berkley and Mrs. Solverson, former Barbara Alice Bigge, is the daughter of the Donald M. Bigges of Stratford lane, Bloomfield Hills. The main purpose of their visit was the christening of the first child, John Paul, who was born May 30 in Newport. Paul was christened in St. Hugo of the Hills church on July 10 and was then the center of attraction at the family dinner which followed.

Two parties in Paul's honor were given shortly after. Mrs. John J. Carran of Royal Oak hosted a baby shower on July 12 and Mrs. Edward Lee feted him at another shower on July 15. After their vacation here, Dr. and Mrs. Solverson and son returned to Newport where Dr. Solverson will complete his active duty with the Dental Corps of the U.S. Navy.

Auxiliary Entertained at Open Hunt

Dancing their colorful summer frocks, members of St. Joseph's Auxiliary gathered last Thursday at Bloomfield Open Hunt for a luncheon meeting with Mrs. James Q. Goudie to discuss further plans on the auxiliary's denim dance slated for Sept. 24. Mrs. Goudie and Mrs. J. R. Davis are co-chairmen of the dance which will benefit the hospital. Other members attending were Mesdames Rocco DiMarco, Edward E. Rothman, Ralph Polk Sr., Walter Williams, Harwood Baron, John Maddox, John Reid, Ray Cunningham, E.A. Christie and Irving A. Duffy.

Celebrates 50th Year

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dawson of Yarmouth road, Birmingham, opened their home Sunday for a surprise anniversary party for Mrs. Dawson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Barrett of Flint. Sixty-four guests from Florida, Wisconsin, Lansing, Flint and Toledo attended the 50th wedding anniversary. The Barretts have six children and 26 grandchildren. Also in attendance were three people from the wedding party. A buffet dinner was served.

Parties Planned for Ann Osborn

On August 4, Ann Osborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Osborn of Martell drive, Bloomfield Hills, will become the bride of Richard Hartzell, son of the Herman L. Hartzells of Anderson, Ind. For the past few months the bride-elect and her fiancé have been feted at several pre-nuptial parties.

A miscellaneous shower was given last Wednesday by Mrs. Eugene Barney of Gleggary circle and Mrs. Albert Hopkins of Berwyn road. The following day, Mrs. Ronald Evans of Evergreen road honored the bride-elect at a spice shower and Friday guests arrived at Mrs. Franklin Dowling's home for a kitchen shower. A record shower was given by Mr. and Mrs. William Hoglund of Henrietta street.

ON AUGUST 4, a dinner party and dance will be given by the Robert Vanderkloots, the Paul McKennys, the Semon Knudsens and the John Stevensons at the Knudsens' home. The Herman Searneys will entertain at a luncheon the following day.

Bloomfield Hills country club will be the scene for the rehearsal dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hartzell. On the day of the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. George Russell will entertain out-of-town guests at a luncheon and that evening the Edward McSauls of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, will entertain out-of-town guests at a dinner.

Bride Appears In Gown of Silk Organza

Jeanne Ruslander and Harry Malchok were united in marriage Saturday afternoon. The double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 175 guests.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Ruslander of 13 Mile road, Birmingham, appeared in a gown fashioned of silk organza and taffeta designed with a sabinra neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. A cap of embroidered lace and seed pearls secured her veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses, asteranthis and feathered carnations.

MRS. HARRY MALCHOK

THE GROOM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Malchok of Parma, Ohio, asked Nicholas Malchok to be best man. Seating the guests were Dick Dunchock and Clyde Howse.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Bruce Burns and bridesmaids were Lesia Cuna and Mrs. Chester Corey. They wore pastel green silk organza gowns and carried fitted bodices and carried cascades of melon roses and ivy.

For her daughter's wedding,

Mrs. Ruslander selected a flowered chiffon dress in shades of melon, green and white and a corsage of melon feathered carnations.

THE GROOM'S mother chose a beige dress and a corsage of green and white feathered mums.

Reception followed the ceremony at the Rotunda Inn.

MSU Students' Troth Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Bradley of Spokane drive announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Tall, to William Peck Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verna C. Hampton of Brookside drive, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride-elect attends Michigan State university where she is af-