If you think that you really have an enemy, and are sure of it because he or she has said or done evil toward you, the worst thing you can do is to allow your mind to brew nasty, unkind, unlovely thoughts about such an "enemy." Actually, the wisdom of the ages (supported by Divine Law itself) argues that you can help to abolish that person's bad thoughts and acts by thinking kindly of him or her. Try it!

Bride Designs Wedding Gown of Silk Organza

Kirk in the Hills church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Jane Blair Cunningham to William Frederic Herrington. Dr. Harold DeWindt performed the 5 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blair Cunningham of Wooddale court, Bloomfield Village. The groom is the son of Mrs. Martha Scider of Colton, Calif., and Mr. William W. Herrington of San Carlos, Calif.

MRS. W. F. HERRINGTON

FOR HER WEDDING day, the bride designed a gown of silk organza over taffeta featuring a scoop neckline, long tapering sleeves and a panel of embroidered roses extended down the front of the gown.

A fingertip veil of silk illusion was secured by a cluster of silk organza roses. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white roses and ivy centered with orchids.

Sally Cunningham, sister of the bride, served as honor attendant and bridesmaid was Ann Cunningham. They wore white organza over yellow taffeta designed with a ruffled collar, puffed sleeves and a bouffant skirt. They wore large picture hats and carried bouquets of white daisies and yellow rosebuds.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond D. Mansfield who moved to San Quentin street in Lathrup on July 11 from Lakewood. They are also former residents of Dearborn township and Birmingham and were members of the Birmingham players during their local residence in 1956. They have three children, Sandy, 8, Mark, 5, and Scott, 18 months. Mr. Mansfield is a representative in Michigan for the Hevost Shoe Manufacturing company of Milwaukee. The couple enjoy gardening and P. T. A. activities.

ROBERT A. MOORE of Falls Village, Conn., stood as best man. Ushers were H. Edward Conway and Robert T. Schneider.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cunningham chose a pale pink Italian silk sheath with matching accessories and pinned a white orchid corsage on her purse.

FOR TRAVELING to the Smoky mountains, the new Mrs. Herrington wore a beige and white striped linen sheath with matching accessories. They will make their home in Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Westchester Group Plans Potluck Party

WESTCHESTER — Members of the Westchester association will gather at 7 p.m. July 30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Phillips, on W. Breckenridge for a planned potluck supper, followed by an evening of dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stein, social chairman of the association, are in charge of arrangements. Assisting them are Mrs. Vera Montgomery and Mrs. Dorothy Filter.

E. W. Montgomery of Bennington court and Walt Dunbar of Berkshire drive returned recently from a week's fishing trip to Keokuk lake.

The lake is some 1200 miles north of Minneapolis and is inaccessible except by plane. Montgomery said there were eskimos, husky dogs and Indians, but few large fish.

Patrice Kough returned recently from a wonderful two week vacation in California.

In San Francisco, as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Walter Wixon, Pat visited Chinatown and dined at Fisherman's Wharf.

She was also entertained by her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Struble of Romoland. Highlighting her vacation was a visit to Perris, Cal. where she went swimming and learned the art of water skiing.

Before her return trip by jet, she spent some time viewing the wonders of Disneyland.

Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Keough of S. Williamsbury road.

Et Col. and Mrs. John E. Pokorny have returned to their home on Maple Lane after attending the National Sojourners convention in Seattle.

Pokorny was elected commander of the heroes and re-elected as judge advocate for the eleventh consecutive year.

Following the convention, the Pokornys joined friends and flew to Honolulu for a Hawaiian vacation.

They also made a stopover in San Francisco on the return trip.

Meadowlake Names Three As Directors

MEADOWLAKE — Three new members were elected to the board of directors of the Meadowlake Farms civic association at the July 11 meeting. They are Jack Green-shields, Jack Holmes and Joe Schaffer.

On July 16, the board elected Joe Schaffer to office of president of the association; Vincent Johnson,

Unusual Hats Set Beach Party Mood

WEST BLOOMFIELD—WALNUT LAKE—Swaying Japanese lanterns, a huge crackling bonfire and a calypso combo set the tempo for the party sponsored by the Lane Pine association at sub. 3 beach Saturday evening.

Guests were requested to wear unusual beach hats and unusual they were. One male guest, who concealed his identity behind a blackened face, wore a hat fashioned of hugg leaves. Another appeared wearing an umbrella top tied under his chin. Everyone was dressed in bright beach attire.

Cold cuts and various kinds of salads were on the menu.

Among the cocktail parties preceding the party were those hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chudik and Dr. and Mrs. John Caldwell.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—Week and guests the Harry White home on W. Dartmoor road, were Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shelly of Hazelton, Ind.

"Learn, live and serve with 4-H" was the theme of the 42 annual 4-H club week held at Michigan State University, July 12-15 and attended by five members of the Bloomfield 4-H club.

Lois Bette, Douglas Norland, Hugh Nickel, Janet Smith and Donald Dierkes, Bloomfield 4-H club members, were among the 1,150 young people from all over Michigan who attended.

Club members were divided into groups representing all nations and taught the necessity of understanding people.

Scheduled tours covered visits to the Oldsmobile plant, the state capitol building and the college.

One of the most interesting speakers, according to club members, was Frank Liddle, a retired YMCA worker. His talk covered many of the problems of young people and was followed by a panel discussion.

WHILE THERE WERE many classes to attend, from 8 to 5 p.m. every day was devoted to fun in the form of swimming, tennis or just relaxing.

Mrs. B. Norland, Bloomfield 4-H club leader, served as counselor for the girls from Oakland county while her son Paul served as junior counselor for Oakland county boys.

WALNUT LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Julian Offensteln, of Putnam Drive, are celebrating the arrival of their first grandchild, Charles Keith, born July 2.

The baby's parents are Mr. and Mrs. (Jewel) Charles Gray, of Wallid Lake.

ANGLEWORMS "WIGGLED" frogs jumped and fuzzy little caterpillars wended their way across the unusual painting presented to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fraser for their new home in Dallas, Texas.

The painting was the clever idea of Mrs. J. B. Mooney, 255 S. Williamsbury road.

Each chapeaux will be an original, designed by the wearer.

An interesting program has been planned with area children displaying their recently acquired knowledge of the technique of flower arranging.

THE PROGRAM will be under the direction of Mrs. W. H. St. Clair, who conducted the classes in arranging for the juniors.

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. R. W. Layland and Mrs. L. H. Gertz.

Club to Convene

WESTCHESTER — Westchester women's club has scheduled a constitution revision meeting at 12:30 p.m., July 27 at the home of Mrs. Edward Schlee, 2832 Heathfield road. All members are urged to attend.

'Christmas' Day At Camp Cavell

Girls leaving Saturday for the summer's third two-weeks session at the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron will observe Christmas in July.

July 30 will be "Christmas Day", which will be celebrated with a turkey-and-all-the-fixings dinner, a Christmas tree campers themselves will cut down and bring to the lodge to decorate, a visit from Santa Claus, and caroling from cabin to cabin.

Among those arriving from Birmingham are Mary Beth MacKellar, Patricia Duff, Vicki Detlef, was furnished for each guest, who incidentally arrived carrying a worm, frog or caterpillar.

These little creatures were then dipped in paint and allowed to roam at will across the white paper. If nothing else, the resulting painting was different.

Guests also enjoyed reading beatnik poetry, playing the bonzo drums and visiting the Brubaker's newly completed new home on Chalmers lake. A late supper was served in Dallas.

A large sheet of drawing paper was stretched on the ping pong table and various hues of paint
