Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Society Notes
from Carol Waltz
News for this column will be phoned to Mrs. Waltz at MI 6-1914

Stoneycroft Golf club, at the end of Stoneycroft lane in Bloomfield Hills, is as picturesque as its name—stretching out over little knolls and vales in changing shades of green where sun and shadow meet.

Looking at the little log cabin clubhouse with its big stone chimney, the rambling rustic fences, a stone bridge curving over the peaceful water—we wonder who needs a game of golf to relax and relieve tensions.

But the activity—golfing and social—Stoneycroft more on a pace belied by its pastoral setting. Owned by Mr. and Mrs. Don D'Onofrio, it has been a private club for three years. And the emphasis is largely on family-type activities. They are tournaments for couples. There are lessons for children, ages 9 to 14. These are given by Mr. D'Onofrio, who is a Class A P.G.A. member, and by his assistant pro, Mike Cavanaugh.

Thursday is Ladies' Day at Stoneycroft

And you won't find the women members of Stoneycroft waiting at home! They're out with their clubs every day. But Thursday is Ladies' Day with its special fun tournaments.

Members of the Ladies' Day planning committee—Mrs. Lawrence Perkins, Joan Abrash, Mrs. William Hengel and Mrs. Martin Edger.

Tournaments for men are scheduled each weekend. Planners are Beau Simpson, Raymond Wall, Graham Smith and Jim Sneyd.

Golf Club Slates Three Big Events

Three of Stoneycroft's big annual social events are coming up during the next three months.

August 6 is Stag Day. On the planning committee for this men-only party are Ken Howard, Fred Britton, Maury Simpson and Jim Sneyd.

A costume tournament for couples—Sept. 11 promises—we'll wager—a lot more laughter than low scores. Who could keep his eye on the ball with everybody romping around in "Roaring Twenties" regalia?

The club's second annual dinner dance will be Oct. 29 at Birmingham country club.

Stoneycroft Names Club Champions

Club champions at Stoneycroft are Jerry Burns and Mrs. William Hengel.

But there are six more medal-winning golfers!

This year in the National Best-of-Pro tournament it's sponsored by the National Golf foundation to raise scholarship funds, pro Billy Casper was beaten six times by Stoneycroft members. They are Mrs. Brady Brenton, Mrs. Lawrence Perkins, Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Ruth Ferguson, Kathy Prottegeier and Mrs. Martin Edger.

All six names, you will note, are of the feminine gender.

The men, we were smilingly informed, attribute this weaker-sex success to seven extra strokes—plus handicap—which only the women received.

"Pure skill," respond the women, eyes twinkling at the medal-less males.

Anyway it's fun. And that's what Stoneycroft—with one of the prettiest private-club settings in Michigan—has a lot of.

the opportunity to meet many new and interesting people.

This is not the first time she has been honored. Last year she was at Interlochen on the same type of scholarship.

Judy has talents other than music, however, and come July 23 she'll be hurrying up to Higgins Lake for her favorite sport—water skiing.

Grandparents Stop Here for a Visit

Chip, Bobby, Todd and Mimi Beel—children of the William Beels of Argyle—have been three blessed with grandparents visits this summer.

Mrs. Arch Anderson, Mr. Beel's mother, came for several days during the season—just stopping by after a trip to the south-west, down through Mexico, then over to Florida to see Mrs. Beel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas M. Bacon.

A short time later Mr. and Mrs. Bacon drove up from Florida to spend a few days here during their annual six-weeks trek from their Bellaire Estates home to their home in Sandusky, Ohio.

Now Mrs. Anderson is enjoying a return visit to the Beel household from her home in Grand Rapids.

Busy Summer Set For Dave Simes

We mentioned in May the trip to California former Birminghamite Betty Sime (Mrs. Dave) was planning to take with her track star husband for the Olympic tryouts. (Betty is the daughter of the C. B. Quillians of Chesterfield.)

Dave did make the team—and because of it, there snafus for we thought the busiest summer we've heard of.

Betty and Dave will be at Virginia Beach and then New York next week for a short rest. Then Dave will join the team in Oregon, go down to California, then back to New York before flying to Zurich, Switzerland, August 16. After a week of training there (Italy is too hot this time of year) he'll go to Rome for the games.

Wives, of course, can't accompany their husbands. So—Betty is going on tour to Paris, London, through Germany and Switzerland, a stop-off for the Passion Play, down to Venice and Florence—leaving the tour and arriving in Rome the same day Dave comes in with his team.

She'll be there until Sept. 4, then back to Paris and home (Durham, N.C.) where she plans to teach this year in a private school.
