If you're wondering about the whys and wherefores of the big interesting-looking tent that graced the Robert Nadal yard on Dorchester—you can stop.

We know what it was for and where it went.

It's in New England serving as very adequate housing for Mrs. Nadal and Nancy, 15, Suzanne, 13, Bill, 10, and Jim, 4. They're on a camping trip having the time of their lives, living the life they love out-of-doors. (Bob, Jr., and father are staying in Birmingham, keeping the home fires burning.)

This isn't a flash-in-the-pan undertaking for unseasoned campers. For many years Mrs. Nadal has been interested in this sort of thing. About three years ago she decided to do something about it. So they started studying equipment and learning all the do's and don't's of camping.

Last summer they spent six enjoyable and informative weeks on a camping trip out west.

Next summer, if plans work out, the whole family may travel even farther afield.

The tent? It's a new kind, with a design only ardent followers of this ancient and wonderful mode of travel could understand.

And what better place to check it over and air it out than on a big front lawn?

It's well used by now. (They left two weeks ago and won't be returning until some time next week.) And we can't help thinking what a wonderful thing it is for a family—sitting just outside such a tent, waiting for a campfire to die, watching the stars brighten, listening to little night noises—together.

Vans Kept Busy On Dorchester

And speaking of people on Dorchester—they really have been moving out and in lately!

The R. H. Dickenshields moved there from their home on Ridgedale not too long ago.

Now the Frazer E. Pomeroy and the John A. Swayzes, side-by-side neighbors, are moving away.

The William R. Candler's of Knox are going into the Pomeroy home.

The David E. Osborns of Forest are replacing the Swayzes.

The Frank M. Arnolds have just moved from Dorchester to Devonshire in Beverly Hills. Into their former home will be moving the Peter M. Gays of Yosemite.

Sounds like "fruit-basket-turn-over", doesn't it?

J. H. Shaffers Entertain Chapter

It was a busy day for everybody when Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Haskell Shaffer of Radnor entertained the Dixie Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy—and their families—at their summer cottage in Williams Lake Saturday a week ago.

Helping to host were Barbara Hicks and John and William Shaffer.

And having fun together were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kilbury with David and Susan; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Sawyer with Donald and Bryan; Mr. and Mrs. David Ayers, Jr. with Janet, David, Meta and Mrs. Ayers' mother who is visiting from Richmond, Virginia; Mrs. W. L. Dallas and Mrs. Bessie Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Fern Green with Franklin and Walter; Mr. and Mrs. William Rodgers; Dr. and Mrs. Stafford McGee with Mark, Matthew and Timothy.

Planned activities included swimming, canoeing, boating, croquet, badminton and fishing. Croquet and badminton took a back seat, and fishing for blue gill never got started.

But boating was the winner of the day.

Janet and Meta Ayers learned quickly how to row, but landing proved to be a different proposition. To their rescue came David Kilbury, jumping from his canoe into "reefs and water-lilies and swimming over to take the boat in tow.

Star swimmers were David Ayers, David Kilbury and a 14-year-old boy, Dr. McGee conquered the canoe in one easy lesson, with "brosie" assistance from sons Mark and Matthew. (Two-month-old Timothy slept peacefully through the whole undertaking in his wee basket.)

The rest of outdoor supper was heartily consumed, with prizes for grill cooking going to Mr. Kilbury and Dr. Shaffer. Mr. Ayers won honorable mention with superb steaks.

Former B'hamites Here for a Visit

Former Birminghamites Mr. and Mrs. Roger F. Quail—with Philip, Diane, Janie and Doris—arrived here Tuesday from their home in Springfield, Pa.

While here they visited with the William L. Storys on Ridgedale (Mrs. Story is Mrs. Quail's sister) and were houseguests of the Robert Quails of Hanna.

This morning they left for a vacation on Torch river.

In two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Story—with daughters Mary and Libby

—will leave to spend a week at Torch lake.

Avon Lane Folks Off to the Lake

Also leaving for Torch lake next Saturday are the Albert Zehlen, Jr., of Avon Lane, with Michael, Debbie, Lynn and Jay. This month at the lake will climax a busy summer for them.

Mrs. Zehle has made several trips to her former home in Buffalo.

Two weeks ago she and Mr. Zehle were at the Homestead in West Virginia for a few days of business and golf.

Last weekend they entertained Mrs. Edward H. Letchworth and her daughter Ann from Buffalo.

Art Exhibit Opens Sunday

The third annual Community Arts and Crafts exhibit will open Sunday in Farmington and will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sundays and every evening from 7-9:30 p.m. through Aug. 7 at the Farmington University Baptist church on Warner street.

The exhibit will undoubtedly be the biggest and best yet with entries from Walled Lake, Birmingham, Southfield, Pontiac, Farmington, Redford and surrounding areas.

A unique feature of this year's show is that only original works are being shown. There will be oils, water colors, graphics, sculpture, jewelry and ceramics.
