Margaret Vandekerck Weds Robert Hampson

Antique vehicles were used to transport the wedding party of Margaret Jean Vandekerck who was married to Robert Tannahill Hampson noon Saturday at Holy Name church in Birmingham. After the ceremony the wedding party was transported to the Pine Lake country club.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Vandekerck of Redding road, Birmingham, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hampson of Holland, Mich., formerly of Birmingham.

MRS. ROBERT HAMPSON

THE BRIDE appeared in an Italian silk gown with soft pink bows with illusion veiling. The matron of honor carried a cascade of pink daisies accented with soft violet shades and bridesmaids carried all pink daisies.

Best man was John C. Hampson Jr., and ushers were Fred Costa, William Barber and Howard T. Howlett Jr.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vandekerck chose a powder blue chiffon sheath with floating panels trimmed in satin. Mother of the groom selected a soft pink chiffon skirt with alençon lace top.

Both mothers had orchids.

THE BRIDE chose a brown and white checked silk tweed suit for her traveling outfit. They will make their home in Big Rapids.
