The kind of thoughts that dominate your consciousness, as you go through life, determine just about everything concerning you. Your happiness, your health, your job, your security, your family and friends—all these situations are dependent upon how you think. One great and lasting help on this subject may be found in the use of part of your leisure time with good, stimulating books.

YWCA Sponsors Weekend Trip

A weekend trip to Stratford, Ontario, to see a matinee performance of Shakespeare's "King John" and to attend an evening concert, presented by the International String Congress orchestra, will be sponsored by the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit August 13-14.

Open to both men and women, the group will leave Central branch YW, 2230 Wilberth street, by chartered bus at 7 a.m. Aug. 13 and will arrive in Stratford in time for a picnic lunch by the Avon River. Overnight accommodations have been arranged through the YWCA and the YWCA in Stratford. Following Sunday breakfast, the day will be open for leisurely sightseeing, tennis and boating, with return to Detroit by 9 p.m. Package cost of the trip, including bus transportation, theatre tickets, dinner, lodging and breakfast is $17.

Reservations may be made at any YWCA branch before Aug. 3. Since 1941 the U.S. Treasury has replaced more than 1,300,000 Savings Bonds—at no extra cost to the owners.
