B'field Youngsters Take A Trip Through History

WEST BLOOMFIELD—BLOOMFIELD FARMS—If Tina, John and Tommy Steele return to school this fall with an unusual interest in American history, it may be due in part to the wonderful 5,825 mile trip from which they recently returned.

With their parents, the James Steeles of E. Dartmoor road, they visited Mammoth Cave, Thomas Jefferson's home at Monticello and the battlefield at Gettysburg. They were particularly fortunate in arriving at Gettysburg during the preparations for the mock battle held each year to commemorate the battle of July 1863.

Continuing their tour of historical and educational sites, they finally arrived in St. Petersburg, Fla., where they visited Mrs. Steele's father, Thomas P. Offutt. The family also had the pleasure of lunching with Vaughan Monroe who was appearing at St. Petersburg beach. Mrs. Steele and Monroe attended school together. Their return trip took them to New York state, the Thousand Islands, Ottawa, Canada and a stop over at Cape Cod where they visited the Charles Ward family who were former residents of Bloomfield Farms.

WALNUT LAKE—Mrs. G. T. Overgard was hostess at a bridge party July 20 at her home on Walnut Lake road. Guests included members of three separate foursomes with which she plays.

BRAES—Joan Smith of Westmoor road spent last week at Caseville as the guest of Chris Pine and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Pine of Meadowlake, who are vacationing at their summer home on the bay.

Accompanying their parents will be Pat, Tommy and Danny. The Brovarney's daughter, Jill has been spending the summer at the lake with her grandparents.

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—Mrs. Walter J. McCarthy of W. Dartmoor road attended the Home-maker's conference held at Michigan State university July 26-29. Mrs. McCarthy, co-chairman, family life committee, Michigan home economics extension council, conducted a meeting for all county family life chairmen from the state of Michigan.

WALNUT LAKE—Mrs. James Sweeney was the hostess at a luncheon and card party at her home on Middlebelt road July 20. Guests included Mrs. Lester John, A. Smith, Mrs. John Bell and Mrs. Frances Pfeiffer.
