Attending Annual Institute

EAST LANSING—William McIlrath, director of student publications at Michigan State university, analyzes a student newspaper with Seaholm high school student Nancy Chinn, who recently attended the Communication Arts Institute at MSU. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Chinn, 31155 Pierce, Beverly Hills, Nancy is one of more than 450 high school students, representing 10 states, who are attending the annual institute this summer on the East Lansing campus. The institute is broken into three two-week sessions, offering courses in reporting, news writing, feature writing, copy editing, photography, television and radio production.

New Bloomfield B of E Members

BLOOMFIELD—W. Earl Givens, William Bachman and Dr. Charles Bowers (from left) got a taste of their new responsibilities last week when they convened for the Bloomfield Hills board of education meeting. The three men are the new members of the seven-man board. Others are David Lee, Mrs. Jean Martz, Merrill O. Bates and Max Miller.

Lewis Family Returns From European Trip

BEVERLY HILLS—Dr. and Mrs. Clayton Lewis and son Clayton, of W. 14-Mile road, have returned from a month's tour of Europe. Flying direct to Dusseldorf, Germany, they motored through that country, Austria, northern Italy, Switzerland, Belgium and Holland, finishing up with a restful boat trip on the Rhine back to Dusseldorf and home.

Since their return they have had Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Reid of Providence, R. I., Mrs. Lewis' parents, as house-guests.

Mrs. William Dodgeon of Hillcrest has returned from an extended visit to California and Europe. She visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Voegelin. She accompanied them on the first polar jet flight to London and Europe. While on the continent they visited Paris, Munich, Barcelona and Salzburg where Mr. Voegelin attended the International Law convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Monahan of Marguerite and their two children, Julia and Tommy, have returned from a vacation at Lake Bellaire in northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil H. Toml of Smallwood recently had Mrs. Toml's sister, Mrs. Francis M. Green and her daughters Laurie, Kathy and Susan, of Redicot, N. Y., and Mrs. Anthony Pack of Trumbull, Conn. as house-guests.

Mrs. Warren E. Henderson and daughter Carol of Landerdale, have returned from a three-week stay at Marathon-on-the-keys, Florida. Mr. Henderson flew down for a few days' visit with them. On a fishing expedition, he caught a 25 lb. dolphin. Carol, who is 13, brought in a 25 lb. kingfish.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Moss of Leemore entertained Dr. and Mrs. Philip Schmitt of Birmingham last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin B. Meloche recently entertained 38 guests at a splash party and picnic at their home on Stillamar. Guests were the Thomas Forriers, the Joe Harmons, the R. J. Smiths, the James Steversons, the Robert Hallecks, the Jim Flaendiners and all their children.

Mrs. Meloche entertained at bridge last Wednesday. Guests were Mrs. Bruce Howard, Mrs. William Shaw, Mrs. Don Spaulding, Mrs. Robert Sattler, Mrs. Robert Howard, Mrs. William Scroggs and Mrs. Betty Hurston.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Pfaff of Albion, Mich., spent last week-end at the Leemore home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rader. Peggy Pfaff had spent the previous week with the Raders.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bernardini of Birwood have returned from a trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., making their way up the east coast for a tour of Vermont. There they visited members of the Bernardini family including Mrs. Stewart Barton, formerly a resident on Dunblaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stocker of Buckingham had Mrs. Stocker's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. Perry Wick of Chicago, as week-end visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. William Findlay of Rosevear recently returned from a month's tour of Scotland. Scotland is Mr. Findlay's old home and he renewed many old friendships.

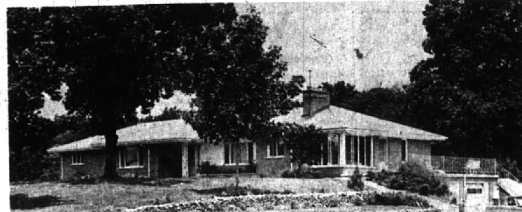

Last Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wilke of Westlady entertained Mrs. Wilke's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cook of Toledo, Ohio. Mr. Cook is here in training with the Detroit Lions.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chambers of Stillamar recently had Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kralinger of Tampa, Fla. as week-end guests. Last week-end Colonel and Mrs. Harvey Clifton of Miami, and their son Tom, who were returning home after a visit to Long Island, N. Y. and Toronto were their guests. Last Saturday night, the Chambers entertained at dinner for the Cliftons and the Wilburas Woodys of Grosse Ile and their children.
