Vacations and Visitors Highlight Local Scene

LATHRUP—Vacations are breaking out all over these days, so let's lead off with the Richard Watkins who returned the 17th from Grand lake and a grand two-week holiday. Topping off their lovely holiday was a visit from the James Lanham's over the last weekend at the lake.

On the receiving end, the Don Forrests of Bloomfield are delighted about the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forrest, Don's parents, from Fla. They will remain with their son's family for a month and plans to make their stay enjoyable are being made.

And the Charles Giordano family is excited over the impending arrival of son Michael, 19, who will be home Aug. 12. He will be on a 15 day leave from his duties as an airman 2nd class and has been in the Air Force for one year.

Local Explorer scouts from post I.C.-1 had fun last weekend on a three-day canoe trip down the Manistee river. The members recently enjoyed several days camping at Cassville. Their advisor is Stephen J. Adams.

Mrs. Louis Canmill and Mrs. Walter Baughman, co-chairmen of the Lathrup Woman's club Charity ball, scheduled for Friday-Sept. 23, are waiting no time getting the dance off to a flying start. Despite hot weather, they are lining up their telephone committee for the glamor affair which will be at Glen Oaks Country club. In addition to the dance, dining and cards are on the agenda.

Mr. and Mrs. James Moore spent a recent weekend at St. Clair inn with their house guests, the Robert Wells of Kenosha, Wis. Young Miss Barbara, 15, is presently enjoying the sights and scenes of Daytona Beach with her father, who knows how to dazzle a daughter's heart.

The gala hereabouts are filled with September thoughts it would seem. Mrs. Lee Belanger is chairman of "An Autumn Rhapsody in Fashions" set for Sept. 14 at her home on Meadowood. The outdoor show will be sponsored by St. Francis' guild of St. Basil's church with fashions by the Jacqueline shops. Refreshments, provisions for a showing and door prizes are promised to lucky ladies who make their reservations early with Mrs. Gordon Wilson, 17545 Roseland, Lathrup.

Southfield Goldfellowes have set a budget goal of $6825 for a coming year. President Thomas Myers tells us there is talk afoot of an amateur boxing event, though plans are not completely jelled yet.

One party after another and all on last Sunday, was the score at the Oscar Sarjanian home on Wiltshire. Some 31 family members had a reunion in the afternoon complete with dinner and the evening saw 125 guests arriving for a belated graduation party for daughter Orzic. A recent Southfield high school graduate, she was feted with a buffet supper. Topping it off was the gift, from her family, of a spanking new car.

A guest from overseas, Mrs. George Strook, who makes her home in Johannesburg, South Africa, was honored at a delightful garden party on the 21st. Mrs. Leslie Swallow was hostess to 34 guests at the buffet luncheon.

He Took First

VALLEY WOODS—Larry Severy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Severy of Eastlady, Beverly Hills, entered a contest on a recent family trip to Florida and Nassau. The result was a bottle of champagne duly won as first prize in a hotel event. The Severys, Larry and his sister, Janelle, drove to Florida and flew to Nassau for a seven-day stay.

Reservist Trains

LATHRUP—Robert R. Naylor, 18652 Cambridge, Lathrup, will leave Sunday, July 31, for two weeks' active military training at Camp McCoy, Wis. His unit is composed of reservists from Detroit and surrounding suburbs.
